TRUMAN HOLDS TO OWN PLAN ON PAY, PRICES

President Counters Program of G.O.P. with Insistence on His 10 Points.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—President Truman met Republican proposals for wage and price legislation today with the declaration that anything less than the administration's 10-point program for curbing living costs will be inadequate.

Mr. Truman told his news conference he will submit to congress a couple of days specific legislation covering the wage and price items which he has requested.

The President added that he also expects to submit other proposals to cover all the ten points outlined in his first message to the special session.

In a sharp criticism of one feature of the proposed Republican program, Mr. Truman said the country's anti-trust laws will be enforced to the limit as long as he is President. He made this comment on a point in the G.O.P. plan which would allow some relaxation of the anti-trust laws to permit industries and business to pool resources and information.

Opposes Anti-Trust Relaxation

Asked if he is also opposed to any relaxation of the anti-trust laws to meet the New England oil shortage, Mr. Truman repeated that as long as he is President there will be no relaxation of the anti-trust laws if he can help it.

Reminded that he had said at a previous news conference that the OPA was in the form of a police-state method, the President said the police state method arises only under dictatorships.

If congress directs price and wage controls in a free government by free legislative action, he said, that is the free government approach.

The Republican plan appeared headed for quick congressional approval with Democratic members of congress indicating willingness to allow Republicans to pass their program and take the blame if it fails. They contend that the G.O.P. plan to curb inflation by "voluntary means will flop.

Built around a plan to let business make agreements to hold down rising living costs without incurring prosecution under the anti-trust laws, the G.O.P. bill was introduced in the house late yesterday with the blessing of senate and house Republican leaders.

Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) called a meeting of the house banking committee today (10 a. m.) to approve the measure, possibly without further hearings, and the house leadership docketed it for debate Monday.

Too Little

Senator Kilgore of West Virginia, one of the first Democrats heard from, declared the Republicans are "rushing to a three-alarm fire with a garden hose."

Democrats championing President Truman's own anti-inflation program were reluctant generally to comment on the counter-proposal, but a top ranking minority member remarked:

"We will not try to block this bill because it will prove before long that something better than the GOP plan is needed."

Senator Downey (D-Calif) said voluntary agreements are "fine as far as they go" but expressed doubt that the Republican plan goes "far enough to be really effective."

"We will have something to say about it next week when debate gets under way," said house Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas.

Upper Sandusky Grain Elevator Hit by Fire

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Dec. 11—Fire broke out at the Walton and Myers Grain Elevator, located just south of the center of town on South Sandusky avenue, shortly after 6 a. m. today and firemen still were fighting the blaze four hours later.

The structure is located near the Pennsylvania railroad tracks and the sides of the bins were beginning to buckle and threaten to obstruct the tracks if they collapse.

Most of the fire was confined inside the bins where a near capacity load, 80,000 bushels, of soybeans and corn was burning. Hoses from the three fire trucks were unable to shoot a stream of water into the top. One of the fire engines is the Crane township truck, one the regular Upper Sandusky truck and the third is an old truck which was rigged up temporarily to fight the flames.

Call for ladder trucks were issued to Marion and Bucyrus departments, but so far neither had arrived. Marion firemen were unable to respond because of restrictions for use of equipment outside a limited area.

The fire was discovered early this morning when Howard Walton, no relation, driver for the Kidley Dairy, noticed a light in the head house. The alarm was turned in after he questioned a policeman about whether they kept a light at nights. There is no watchman

The elevator was Wyandot county's largest Contents included soybeans, corn and some wheat worth nearly $300,000 at current prices.

Fire Chief Clarence P Beimrech said the blaze apparently started either from defective wiring or spontaneous combustion at the top of the tall wood structure.

Partner in Arizona

The elevator is now owned by Ward Walton of near Upper Sandusky and Wayne Myers of Tucson, Ariz. The latter, upon being notified, stated that he was flying here.

The structure was rebuilt in 1921 when it was razed by fire while under the ownership of Alton Gregg The present partners bought it in 1940.

The fire is the second piece of bad luck to happen within a week Last week, the office was broken into and about $2,000 worth of office equipment stolen.

Extent of the loss, other than value of the contents, is not known yet but it is almost completely covered by insurance.

2 PASSENGER TRAINS CRASH

Two Trainmen Die in Headon Collision on M-K-T Line in Texas.

By The Associated Press

NEW BRAUNFELS, Tex, Dec 11 — Two Missouri-Kansas-Texas passenger trains collided head-on near here last night and exploded into flames, killing two trainmen, injuring nine other persons and leaving three men missing, two of them crewmen and another a railroad inspector.

The two trains ran together 10 miles south of here at 11 43 p. m (CST), the locomotives stacking on top of each other and front cars telescoping.

Dead were Jack B. Coleman, fireman of Waco, Tex., about 28, and George W. Stainthorpe, a train carman from San Antonio, Tex.

Missing was engineer Roy Calaway, about 60, of Smithville, Tex., and a Negro porter, Will Maney, of San Antonio

Railroad officials said a railroad inspector, not otherwise identified, was aboard one of the baggage or mail cars and is unaccounted for.

The northbound train, the Katy Flyer, was enroute to Kansas City and St. Louis. The southbound train, the Katy Limited, was enroute to San Antonio.

Both trains were heavily loaded with Christmas mail An estimated 1,800 sacks of mail burned and another 1,800 were saved Mail sacks were found 300 feet from the tracks.

Several thousand dollars in currency shipments were recovered by Deputy Sheriff V. E. King of Comal county. A platoon of National Guardsmen from New Braunfels guarded the wreckage and mail.

No water was available and flames were fought with chemicals.

The accident occurred on a single straightline track. No block signals are used along that part of the line and trains pick up orders from points along the line, officials said.

The trains carried a total of 42 passengers

Mickey Pattillo, special agent for the railroad, said the two engineers "evidently got their orders mixed up"

Only J M. Bayless, Arlington, Tex., baggageman, was listed in a critical condition early this morning at the New Braunfels general hospital

Mrs Louise A. Krueger, hospital superintendent, said others injured were Paul E Chesser, fireman, Waco; Floyd Jenkins, engineer, San Antonio; R. B. Ferguson, Arlington, Tex., baggageman; M. C. Combs, baggageman, and B. J. Smith, Dallas, baggageman, all members of the train crews.

Three passengers were treated and released early today. They were H. D. Nielsen of San Antonio; James R Petray, San Antonio, and David R. Stanton, Arlington, Va.

Portion of the trains—number three headed south and number six headed north—were engulfed in flames following the collision and pieces of the engine boilers were blown several hundred yards into a nearby field.

ALGER MAN HELD IN SHOOTING AFFRAY

Special to The Star

KENTON, Dec. 11—Leon Stratton, 48, is in Hardin county jail today facing charges of shooting with intent to kill after firing at Village Marshall Homer Burton at nearby Alger early this morning.

Stratton fired from a window of his second hand store and residence after barricading himself four hours while the marshall, Sheriff Randall Clark and three deputies of Kenton tried to smoke him out with tear gas bombs.

Sheriff Clark was called to Alger by Marshall Burton when Stratton was found creating a disturbance at Order's restaurant and beer parlor shortly after midnight, by firing his shotgun outside the restaurant.

Stratton came out once during the four-hour seige with his double-barrel shotgun blazing at the officials, but sought shelter again when the marshal answered with a blast of his own which slightly wounded Stratton.

He was apprehended when Sheriff Clark pleaded with Mrs. Stratton to surrender her husband s weapon. Sheriff Clark took Stratton to San Antonia hospital in Kenton where he was treated for superficial wounds before being taken to jail.

POSSIBLE STRIKE END IN ITALY INDICATED

By The Associated Press

ROME, Dec. 11 — A general strike directed by leftists closed down all but vital public services and railroads in Rome today, but government and labor leaders were reported to have agreed on broad general lines which might end the multiple walkout.

The Chamber of Labor which called the strike in protest against unemployment, estimated 500,000 workers were made idle. It was the first general strike in Rome in a quarter century.

The government-labor conference at the treasury ministry lasted five hours. Later today Giuseppe di Vittorio, secretary of the general Italian Confederation of labor, was to report on the meeting to the executive committee of the Rome provincial Chamber of Labor, which would have to approve any agreement

Informants said an agreement would return strikers in Rome and Rome province to work tomorrow, or possibly earlier.

Many workers reported for duty and stood by hoping the strike would be called off before darkness. Strong police and military forces were on patrol and at stations to prevent disorders.

The dominantly leftist (mostly Communist) Chamber of Labor of Rome province, which called the strike last night, said there had been no attempts by workers to violate the strike call and that nothing could end it before a mid-morning conference with government representatives at the ministry of labor.

SIX SURVIVORS REPORTED IN PLANE CRASH

23 Dead Listed in Wreck of Huge Army Transport in Labrador.

By The Associated Press

WESTOVER FIELD, Mass, Dec 11—The U. S. Air Transport Command announced today there were only six survivors of the 29 American military men aboard the huge transport plane that crashed in Labrador's icy wilderness Tuesday midnight.

A doctor who landed at the wreckage eight miles north of Goose Bay reported 23 were killed

Names of the survivors and dead are being withheld pending receipt of a complete report.

The huge transport plunged flaming to earth in forested, hilly country that could not be reached by air or ground for nearly 24 hours.

Reports Slow Coming

A rugged rescue party traveling overland with dog-sleds reached the wreckage last night—but first reports of the survivors came only after the landing of a radio-equipped helicopter.

Stormy weather hampered communications even though only eight miles separated the scene of the wreck from the Goose Bay airfield where the rescue operations are being directed.

It wasn't until daybreak that the first word came from Goose Bay It was a terse message reading only:

"Believe there are some survivors"

A hard, driving wet snow has prevented any large-scale air rescue but a helicopter carrying doctors and medical supplies landed within a half mile of the scene.

Just before the report that some may have survived the crash came from Col. Paul A. Zartman at Goose Bay, another message said two persons had been sighted from the air at the wreckage.

Identity Unknown

Whether these were survivors or Eskimos was not known at Goose Bay, where Maj Gen. William Tunner, commander of the Atlantic division of the ATC, is directing the rescue operations.

The party was unable to report the fate of the occupants of the four-engined craft because of lack of radio equipment, but the Royal Canadian Air Force at Goose Bay said earlier that "flares sighted indicate possible survivors."

The pilot, Capt. Vernon B. Wedemeyer, made a stop at Harmon, an ATC operations base, enroute from Germany to Westover.

The RCAF informed Westover that "part of the tail sections seem intact," but the remainder apparently was "gutted by fire."

A helicopter, quickly reassembled by airforce mechanics after its arrival at Goose Bay from Westover, took off for the crash scene at 4 a m (eastern standard time) in foul weather.

Doctor Aboard

Lt Stanley Bear of Carlisle, Pa., a parachute doctor, presumably was aboard the craft, Westover field reported. He carried a sack of latest medical equipment and supplies designed for first aid purposes.

The Army said it planned to "chut" him into the dense forests if the helicopter could not land to bring relief to any survivors.

The big ship—a C-54 Skymaster, capable of carrying 10 passengers, crashed within five minutes after it took off from Goose Bay at 11 58 p m, Tuesday.

$50 Million Added To Foreign Relief Bill by House Action

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—The house today approved an amendment to the $590,000,000 emergency foreign aid bill which might make the program cost the United States $50,000,000 more through use for relief abroad of surplus foods bought by the government.

The amendment, approved by voice vote, was offered by Rep Jack Z. Anderson (R-Calif). It would compel government agencies, chiefly the Commodity Credit Corp, to sell surplus products for foreign aid at prices which CCC officials have estimated would mean a $50,000,000 loss on present holdings.

That estimate does not take into account citrus fruits, in which Anderson is interested, and which may be bought later by the ICC in accordance with government price support programs

Bill "Over Hump"

Anderson's amendment came up at the start of perhaps the final day of house action on the emergency aid program Supporters of the bill have said they consider it "over the hump" and are driving for a vote on passage)

Rep Vorys (R-Ohio), piloting the bill through the house, said he saw no objection to the Anderson proposal since it was in accordance with the objective of substituting plentiful for scarce foods in helping hungry, broke nations through the winter

Vorys and Rep. Jarman (D-Ala) told reporters they figured the bill skimmed over its biggest hurdles when the house late yesterday rejected amendments to cut the bill to $290 000 000 (million), reduce it to $500 000 000, and raise it to $661,000,000

Still Some Openings

There still were openings for more attempts to juggle the total But Vorys, who has been managing the measure on the floor, said:

"I feel that the bill is now over the hump The amendments to date have improved the bill, and I don't see any ahead that could damage the bill seriously and we've had fairly good success in defeating bad amendments"

Jarman said he thought opponents probably mustered their peak power behind an amendment by Rep Lawrence H Smith (R-Wis) to allow the even $500 000 000 for winter help to Italy, France, Austria and China The house turned it down, 147 to 97

"We were afraid of that one," Jarman said

He himself was planning an amendment which in effect would add $60,000,000 (million) to the measure The idea, he explained, is to give China that amount by adding the money to a foreign relief law enacted last May instead of requiring the administration to help China out of the $590,000,000 in the current bill.

NICHOLS CONVICTED, FACES EXECUTION

LIMA, O., Dec. 11 — Lester A. Nichols, 42, of Silver Lake, Ind., was convicted last night by a jury in the shotgun slaying of his father-in-law, Rev. Louis Whitaker, 76, at West Newton. There was no mercy recommendation, thereby making the death sentence mandatory.

The jury deliberated four and one-half hours Nichols retained his composure throughout the trial.

Nichols also faces a charge of shooting with intent to kill in connection with the wounding of his estranged wife, Nora Nichols, the same date—May 6—his father-in-law was shot fatally.

JERUSALEM'S GATES BLOCKED BY BRITISH

By The Associated Press

JERUSALEM, Dec. 11—British troops blocked the gates of Jerusalem's old walled city just before noon today as firing in its ancient maze of streets reached proportions which indicated a battle of sizable proportions had broken out between Arab and Jewish inhabitants

Closing of the gates barred further exodus by both Jews and Arabs, who had been frantically moving out their possessions in army trucks throughout the morning.

Several hundred families already have fled the walled area, which in normal times has a population of about 20,000 Arabs, 2,500 Jews and 4,000 others of mixed nationality — mostly Armenians and Greeks

A business man from the new city, who left the walled region a few minutes before the gates closed, said he had seen dead and wounded lying in the streets

The battle apparently broke out when Arabs occupied a synagogue and hoisted their flag over the building. They later were driven out by the Jews. One Arab war reported killed and two Jews wounded in this engagement.

REAMS WITHDRAWS FROM GOVERNOR RACE

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O, Dec. 11—Frazier Reams, state welfare director during the administration of former Gov. Frank Lausche, today withdrew from the Democratic gubernatorial primary race and announced his candidacy for the nomination for attorney general.

In a formal statement Reams declared his ambition to serve ultimately as governor is unchanged, and that his announcement "postpones but does not change my overall hopes and plans."

Reports that Reams would shift his place on the ballot have been current for several weeks. Last week he confirmed he was considering the switch, declaring that he had been approached by county chairman supporting the gubernatorial candidacies of Lausche and Ray T. Miller of Cleveland.

Body of Young Real Estate Salesman Found Dumped on Lonely Bridge.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 11—A real estate salesman, who went riding with a prospective purchaser of his 1947 automobile, was shot to death with his own pistol last night and his body left on a lonely bridge.

Three persons were taken into custody today for questioning about the death of 26-year-old Elmo C Rice after police initiated a search for a tall-middle-aged man with a black mustache.

One, with a mustache, was seized at the union bus terminal as he spent his last dime for a shoe-shine. He had washed mud from his shoes.

Rice's body, with two bullet wounds in the head, was found on the Wilson road bridge, northwest of the city. His automobile, the back seat smeared with blood, was found abandoned in the downtown section shortly after his wife reported him missing.

Mrs Rice informed police that the prospective buyer for their auto came to their home in a taxicab and agreed to pay cash if he liked the car "after a short spin."

Man About 35 or 40

Mrs Rice said in the report that the man with whom her husband departed was "35 or 40, tall, with a mustache"

ATOMIC PLANT LABOR AGREEMENT REACHED

By The United Press

OAK RIDGE, Tenn, Dec. 11—A labor dispute that for a time threatened to disrupt the production of vital atomic energy at the huge U S. atom plant here was settled today.

Union and company negotiators announced that agreement on terms on a new contract for some 2,800 employes at a uranium separation plant here had been reached at 1 a m.

The workers, members of the CIO's Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers union, are employed in a gas diffusion plant operated for the government by the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp.

Final settlement followed nine days of talks, during which the union postponed at government request a scheduled strike so that negotiations could continue

The new contract provides for a blanket hourly wage increase of 10 cents, according to a joint statement of a company and union officials The union had originally demanded a 25-cent hike.

The statement, released by General Superintendent Clark E. Center and Union Vice President C. W. Dannenberg, said the "wage question kept negotiators in session far into the night for the last few days"

The union's wage demand was the top issue in its 24-point contract program.

Center and Dannenberg said the new contract, effective Dec 8, 1947, will run for 18 months. It will contain an option, they said, whereby the union can reopen wage talks after eight months.

CLOTHING OF MURDERED GIRL IS IDENTIFIED

State Presents Six Witnesses Including Step-Mother of Roxie Green.

The state put six witnesses on the stand this morning after formal opening statements to the jury who are trying Ray A. Shappard for first degree murder, were made by County Prosecutor James E. Reed and Ralph Carhart, counsel for the accused.

Examined and cross examined this morning were Mrs. Carl Green, Norma Jean Sparks, classmate of the slain girl, Mrs Belva Beery and Mrs. Bertha Helzer, residents who claimed to have seen Roxie on her way home from Prospect the evening she was slain, Donald Edward Green, younger brother of Roxie, who found the girl's hair ribbon, shoe and coin purse, and Dale Hughes, Marion photographer who made the photos of the body at the spot on which it was found and later in the Merle Hughes mortuary.

Prosecutor Reed prefaced his address to the jury with the statement "this is a grim experience in the history of Marion county." The prosecutor recounted the history of the case, pointing out to the jury that his purpose was to present the facts which the state will endeavor to prove An attempt to go into the various allegations necessary to be proven in first degree murder drew an immediate objection from Attorney Carhart, sustained by Judge Paul D. Smith, presiding.

A second attempt by the prosecutor drew further objection by the defense on the grounds that legal interpretation of terms would be forthcoming later in the charge to the jury by the judge The objection was sustained and, visibly irked, the prosecutor concluded his opening remarks to the jury.

Defense Statement

In his opening statement, defense counsel Ralph Carhart pointed out that under the right of the accused to a fair and impartial trial, the defense will bring every person, every fact that may shed some light on the crime before the jury, so that you may reach a fair and impartial verdict" An attempt to read a confession which he said the state will prove was written and signed by Shappard was objected to by the state as not relevant to the purpose of an opening statement to the jury. The objection was sustained by Judge Smith.

In his statement, Carhart brought no new facts to light as to the history of the case nor did he indicate the line along which the case will be fought by the defense for Shappard His statement admitted Shappard hit the girl over the head with a hammer and dragged the body into the weeds beside the road He averred however that the crime was one of "impulse" rather than premeditated action In his statement Carhart also pointed out that the body was unrecognizable when found.

Mrs. Green Called First

Opening statement by the defense having been concluded, Prosecutor Reed called the first witness for the state to the stand, Mrs Carl Green, stepmother of the slain girl.

Dressed in black, the attractive 26-year-old woman, with her voice and emotions in firm control, identified the clothes found on the body when discovered in the bushes along the Delaware-Marion county line road the morning of Sept 29

First to be identified as exhibit A were the brown "wedgies" alleged to have been worn by the girl which Mrs Green identified "because I bought them for her."

Exhibit B, the navy blue skirt taken from the body was identified as Roxie's "by the red zipper I sewed in it"

Exhibit C, the red blouse, was next identified with Mrs. Green declaring she had made it for Roxie.

In rapid succession as presented by Prosecutor Reed the following articles of clothing were identified; Exhibit D, red hose, Exhibit E, red bracelet; Exhibit F, ankle bracelet; Exhibit G, lipstick; Exhibit H and H-1, hairbow and clasp and last, Exhibit I, a coin purse.

Questioned by the prosecutor as to undergarments Roxie wore the morning of Sept. 19, Mrs. Green said she wasn't sure as she did not see her when she dressed. She said all the girl's slips were practically new and were of the full length style. None were torn, she declared. The torn slip taken from the body was not submitted in evidence by the state.

Attorney Ralph Carhart cross-examined but briefly, asking for the right to place Mrs. Green on

State department workers were dismissed without receiving a bill of particulars or an opportunity to defend themselves through witnesses or documents, the CIUC charged

The group called for reestablishment of "freedom of thought and freedom of political views."

Respite in France

AFTER months of Communist-inspired strikes, an uneasy peace is settling over France. The Communists have retired to remarshal their forces after a split in the ranks of the National Labor Federation and the Reds' failure to break the coalition in the national assembly.

With two months of production lost, France enters the winter with food and coal supplies lower than ever. There will be less to buy with the pay raises that were granted. France's Russian-inspired saboteurs have given their country a Christmas present of havoc and destruction.

The Schuman government faced the crisis with courage, yielding neither to left nor right and winning the support of Frenchmen of nearly every party. It won extraordinary powers to maintain peace, laws prohibiting the use of fraud and terror to foment strikes, prison terms for saboteurs. Some of the worst foreign agitators were deported.

But the fight isn't over. Communist leaders say it has just begun. The prospect that the Schuman government faces isn't a bright one. A land where there's cold and hunger is fallow ground for agitators. The measure of American aid this winter may be the deciding factor in France's future.

The Shortage of Nurses

THE American Nurses association points out why there is a shortage of nurses. It cites labor department figures showing the average nurse's wage is $40 for a 44-hour week; one nurse in four earns less than $145 a month, and one in four works more than 50 hours a week. In addition, nurses have no social security and enjoy few of the benefits taken for granted by industrial workers.

That is why experienced nurses are abandoning the profession, and why young women are reluctant to enter it except as a stepping stone to more lucrative employment.

Meanwhile, the demand for nurses continues to grow. Hospital insurance programs have increased 11-fold in the last decade. Health education programs and preventive checkups require more nurses.

The Nurse association is seeking better pay, better hours, social security and vacation pay for its members. It is asking for cooperation from civic and community groups to see that public opinion is informed. For not until nurses work under conditions commensurate with the profession's noble precepts will it attract trainees in adequate numbers.

Mr. Ernst

MORRIS ERNST, a respected spokesman for causes usually identified as "liberal," has come forward with a proposal to strip the cloak of anonymity from "front" organizations of both left and right.

Organizations rather than individuals should be investigated, Mr. Ernst believes, and their political coloration fully publicized. Then anyone subscribing to membership in them could be readily classified. It would not make any organization illegal but would require all to make public their membership, income sources and purposes.

The proposal seems a fair and logical one. The attorney general's list of subversive organizations published a few days ago shows we have many "American friends" of one thing and another. Queried about their aims, these "friends" speak highly of democracy, but sometimes their membership and their financial backing shows that friendship to be suspect.

There is nothing unusual about publicizing financial backing and membership where public interest is involved. It is required in the sale of securities and in qualifying for mailing privileges. The organization that may be carrying on subversive activity behind the facade of a high-sounding name and an impressive letterhead deserves no immunity.

This Isn't War

THE Arab terror in the Holy Land shows no large scale organization. Rather it is mob or guerrilla activity indicating the weakness of those who instigate it.

There is no latter-day Mohammed who might shape the Arabs into a formidable fighting machine. Transjordan's King Abdullah, with an eye for acquiring Arab Palestine for his kingdom, has shown a notable lack of enthusiasm for the fanatical acts of violence the reported Arab army of 130,000 has failed to materialize, and if it did there would be no arsenal to supply it.

It was expected that the UN ruling would bring bloodshed in the Holy Land, but street rioting and bombings won't alter the decision. All they will do is delay peace and detract from Arab prestige.

Christmas Carols for Everybody.

WHEN a small boy, I went to school on Broome street on the lower East Side of New York. There may have been a Christian child in my class but I do not recall any such unusual being. We were all Jewish children; our parents were immigrants from Poland, Russia, Galicia and such places.

Nevertheless, when Christmas came, as it did each year, we learned to ring Christmas carols and we had a Christmas tree and we gave our teacher Christmas presents. Our parents did not object; maybe they were too hard - working and too happy to be in this land of freedom to bother with such details. Nearly always, just about Christmas time, we would also celebrate Hannukah, the Feast of the Maccabees, which was quite merry, particularly as we would be given presents and we ate lots of potato pancakes. It was a season of great merriment and it was all especially for little children.

SOKOLSKY

So I was shocked when I read that an assistant superintendent of schools in New York had forbidden the singing of Christmas carols in the public schools under his jurisdiction. Then it appeared that he had been misunderstood and that what he really meant was that it was to be left to each principal to decide what to do. And all kinds of people had their say about it.

Really, this was a stupid bit of very bad judgment, inevitable in the total secularization of education where they teach all sorts of scientific superstitions and mythology but become frightened lest a child learn that there is a God who has given man conscience and will and the capacity to understand the difference between right and wrong. What harm can it do a Jewish child to sing a Christmas carol or a Christian child to learn of the heroism of Judas Maccabeus? If we are God's children, may we not learn each other's songs? Or are we not God's children? Are we only a beach-worm evolved into man by some trickiness of nature while other worms just remained worms? Is it less superstitious to believe the worm theory than the Adam and Eve theory?

How much more logical is Sam Goldwyn's "The Bishop's Wife." When this child from the Warsaw ghetto told me that this was his greatest picture, I could not but feel that Sam was promoting another Hollywood exaggeration. But after I saw it, I realized that truly one must feel the presence of God to produce such a Christmas tale. And it was taken from a book by Robert Nathan, a Jew. They must believe in miracles or they could not have done so magnificently in motion pictures with the miraculous resurgence of love. For is it not love—the love not only of man for women, but of all men for all men, of all that is human for all that is human—that we need most to cure this world of its ailments?

The Christmas Message

This "The Bishop's Wife" tells so simply and truly and understandingly. True, Hollywood must tell it in its own way, using the implements and dimensions that it has at hand; yet, never for a moment is the all-enduring Christmas message of love lost. For that is the whole message of Christmas.

Yes, in this picture, even a bishop forgets his faith. He suffers from practicality. He would sooner build a glorious cathedral of stone and steel than bring the light of love into the lives of those about him. He is driven by the need for accomplishment. He who preaches of angels doubts the one who comes into his life. For sophistication permits him to speak what he does not surely believe. Yet, in the end, the bishop, too, knows the truth, for he has witnessed God's wonders performed.

I felt, as I watched "The Bishop's Wife" on the screen, that Sam Goldwyn, the immigrant from a Warsaw is no more, whose kin must have been among those murdered by hate, was impelled to portray this picture of love, of kindliness, of forbearance as a Christmas carol in this year 1947 when men forget so easily that civilization is conscience and love and the aspiration toward God.

The Old Order Passeth Yes, Even Louis, Too

Negotiations are under way for a return match between Jersey Joe Walcott and Jolted Joe Louis.

That was as inevitable as whiskers on Santa Claus.

Yes sir, the judges' decision in last week's title bout has been questioned more than General Meyers.

Walcott's supporters contend it was the most brazen robbery since the retirement of the James boys.

Louis fought Walcott as a breather and almost ended up in an oxygen tent.

Nobody had heard of Walcott before last Friday night and, before the evening was over, Louis wished he hadn't.

Most previous challengers have been awed and axed by Louis. But, as far as Walcott was concerned, the champ was just another guy named Joe.

Economic Battles Face France

By Walter Lippmann

IT IS reasonably certain that if the French Communist leaders had been free to follow their own judgment, they would not have precipitated such a showdown at this time.

There was never a chance that they could capture the government, nor, having defied its authority, be readmitted into the government. But they might have strengthened their position had they been allowed to limit themselves to being the militant champions of the very genuine grievances of the working class.

LIPPMANN

They were however, compelled to act as an instrument of Soviet foreign policy. They were ordered out to prevent, if possible, the French government from playing its part in the European recovery program and, failing that, to inflict enough economic injury to make the program much more difficult and expensive to carry out.

The event has shown that in a country like France the Communist party is a minority and, in so far as it is the instrument of a foreign power, it is a small minority. As long as the Russian army is unable to intervene, the forces of national resistance are much too strong for the local Communists. They have been defeated by a coalition of the regular political parties—without resort even to the reserves of national power which are represented by Gen. De Gaulle.

Their defeat in this test of power is an event of great importance in Europe and in the world. For the French nation is now permitted and committed to carry out the internal reforms and the international actions which Moscow and the French Communists have tried to prevent.

Strength to Resist

So we have seen that the French democracy is strong enough to resist successfully a threat to its independence. We must, however, recognize that the French people and the French political system have still to meet and overcome the hardest test of all. That is whether, by democratic means, they can make their government strong enough to carry through those financial and economic reforms which are indispensable if the inflation is to be cured and the European recovery program is to be successful.

The French problem is by no means insoluble. It is objectively a far less difficult problem to solve than is the British, not to speak of the Germans. The French, with good luck in their harvests and with proper assistance from the United States, have the wherewithal to recover from the war, to become solvent, and to play a leading part in the affairs of Europe and of the world. But to solve their problems they must have a stable, efficient, and enlightened government which has the support of the nation.

The French problem does not arise, as some American observers have said, from a refusal of the French people to go back to work. The record shows that the recovery of French production since the liberation has been remarkable. The French economic difficulty arises primarily from the fact that though production is near to prewar level, the charges upon it are abnormal. The French have, therefore, to reduce these charges and at the same time to increase their production.

Loan on Economy

What are some of these charges which weigh so heavily upon the French economy? The repair of damage caused by the war accounts in 1947 for a quarter of the government's expenses and there is a large additional sum which is going into maintenance deferred during the war. Another quarter of the government budget is military. Another third of the budget is for the expanded social services.

There is the swollen bureaucracy, which is one-third more numerous than it was in 1938. There is the enlarged export program, made necessary in order to pay for essential imports. Then there is need for capital investment to modernize and develop key industries.

All of these are charges upon current production, and they are the reason why France has an inflation. French production has to supply the current needs of the French people, and also to support the repair of war damage, deferred maintenance, new capital formation, a relatively large military establishment, an enlarged bureaucracy, enlarged social services, enlarged exports and also the expenses of empire.

The question is whether out of the normal political system a government can be formed which can balance not only the budget but the national economy. It is evident that to reduce the charges on French production in order to achieve this balance will require great sacrifice and extraordinary political discipline.

Root of All Evil

By Joseph Alsop

LONDON

THE $400 million remainder of the American loan to Britain, frozen last August, has at last been released for British use. The news got remarkably little attention, either here or in the United States. Yet the preludes to this news were a series of solemn meetings of Britain's inner cabinet, a barrage of anxious telegrams from our London embassy to the state department, and a special journey to Washington by Ambassador Lewis Douglas. Among the small circle of men who understand the facts, this news was received as a condemned man might receive the news of a reprieve.

ALSOP

Money matters—even the finances of a great empire—are always a boring topic. Yet these facts, which have been communicated to so small a circle, are almost as important to the United States as to Great Britain. They mean something that even Representatives Taber, Knutson, Andersen and Martin ought to be able to understand. If the Marshall Plan is not quickly passed, without crippling amendments, the whole worldwide structure of resistance to Soviet aggression will come crashing down in ruins. But since their meaning is so far-reaching, the facts themselves are worth the trouble of some study. They are as follows:

▶Even after the suspension of sterling convertibility in last summer's desperate crisis, the British have continued to lose gold and dollars at a rate of more than $250 millions a month. Their basic reserve of hard assets is now only $2 billions. If Britain is to eat and work, the monthly drain on this reserve cannot be greatly reduced.

▶Worse still, this basic British reserve of hard assets cannot be expended, as the French and Italians have expended theirs, until the last dollar is gone. London is the bank of the sterling area—Australia, New Zealand, Malaya, Burma, India, Ceylon, South Africa, and all the many colonies and dependencies. The $2 billion of hard assets in the vaults of the Bank of England are not only the operating reserve of the United Kingdom. They are also the operating reserve of the entire sterling area. The war has sent the liabilities of the Bank in London to its sterling area customers skyrocketing upwards to over $16 billions. If the bank's reserves fall below a certain point, its customers in South Africa or elsewhere will take fright and start a run. Britain will then be entirely depleted of hard assets and the sterling area will fall to pieces.

▶In the 1920's and 1930's, when the bank's liabilities were immeasurably less, $2.5 billions was regarded as the absolute minimum safe reserve. American and British experts have now been forced, by the remorseless pressure of events, to revise their estimate of a safe reserve downwards to $2 billions. But Americans and British alike agree that this is a real minimum, and that the danger will be acute if the reserves in London go much below $2 billion—the present amount.

The significance of the $400 million just released to Britain by our treasury must now be more apparent. In November, when there was no assurance that this sum would be available, something close to despair prevailed among those brave enough or intelligent enough to face up to the facts. (Among these to be sure, certain persons of very high responsibility, such as the former Chancellor of the Exchequer, Dr. Dalton, cannot be numbered.)

In Restricted Circle.

The situation was regarded as so grave that discussion of the full facts was confined to the inner cabinet, comprising Attlee, Bevin, Cripps, Dalton and Morrison. Besides these men, only Ambassador Douglas was acquainted with all the details. The main object of Douglas' November trip to Washington was to persuade the administration to release the $400 million loan balance without a moment's delay. This money will now tide the British over until about the end of January.

Unfortunately, the Marshall plan cannot be passed and provide fresh dollars, to Britain or anyone else, until the end of February or the middle of March. To bridge this intervening gap, efforts are being made to raise further funds for the British treasury by other means. The expedients being explored are still thickly cloaked in secrecy. Most probably they involved mortgaging the few remaining dollar value securities which Britain holds. In any case, it can be stated on the highest authority that the same dire emergency which sent Douglas flying to Washington in November will recur again, with even greater force, no later than mid-March. There is appallingly little time.

What will happen, then, if the Tabers and Knutsons, Tafts and Wherrys succeed in obstructing the Marshall plan decision, or passing a bill festooned with crippling amendments? The answer to that can be given in four words: "Quite probably, general ruin."

If the opposition to the Marshall plan is successful, the risk of another and this time final run on the British treasury will become acute. If there is such a run, not Britain only, but all the countries of the sterling area except perhaps gold-rich South Africa, will be mortally hit. All will be forced to trade exclusively by barter, since their own currencies will have no value on the world market. Normal world trade, constantly constricted in the past year, will simply cease altogether.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

That Fight Decision Explained

DEAR ED:

Now that it is a memory and the arguments has died down to a mere holocaust, I wish to explain how the judges come to give the recent figat to Joe Louis. (It is not generally known but I was one of the judges. I worked under a non de plummet, and it is plain to me that people has not got no clear idea of the scoring system. So I will explain.)

* * *

It is the same as pinochle, it does not make no difference how many times a player is on his back so long as he is still there at the final deal.

The scoring rules is as follows:
Knockdowns....Minus five points.
Walking forward....Plus 15 points.
Stumbling forward....Plus 16 points.
Groping....26 points.
Giving a blackeye....Minus five points.
Getting a blackeye ....Plus five points.

Not being chump enough when far ahead to walk in on a dangerous hitter and let him get a poke at you....Minus 40 points.

* * *

I was in a better position to see the fight than the other judges as I only had one set of dark glasses on and frequently could tell which fighter was which. And the public has got to understand that we judges operate under the system by which a fighter can lose eight or ten rounds and still win on points as in cribbage an I steeplechase riding.

There is certain things the fight fans has got to keep in mind. A judge has to always take into consideration a champion's past life, his record and the concensus up to the night of the fight, etc. If a challenger who is billed as a punkeroo comes in and knocks the head off a champ, he is subject to get set back behind his own goal post for over surprising the paid officials.

* * *

One thing I find the public does not understand is that we judges hold that a challenger when he is ten rounds ahead must not fail to bore and let a champ get a clean shot at his chin. It must be understood that a man like Louis is always dangerous and that when he is a hour late getting dangerous it is up to the challenger to mix with him and be a 100 per cent sucker.

* * *

People seem to think that because Gene Tunney won from Dempsey by backing up so much he was mistook for Joe Jackson, the trick bicyclist. it is all right for others to act like that. In the first Tunney-Dempsey fight Gene was backing away so much that Jack yelled in disgust to him to come in and do a little fighting, but Gene was no fool. Also he had read up on how Corbett won from Sullivan.

* * *

Them rules is all changed, now and if a challenger does not play the sap when he has the fight all stowed away on points we disqualify him. Didn't a carload of contenders lose by trying to mix with Louis? Then who is this Walcott to cross us up?

* * *

I hope this explains everything. I would like to say that we of the boxing business realize there is too much confusion however and I have a idea to avoid future disputes. My plan is to have four more judges, two referees, a linesman, an umpire, three field judges, a checker, a certified accountant and a couple of NLRB men decide who won. (They do not decide the night of the fight. It all goes to a electoral college.)

Yours,
OSCAR PURKEY

The New Idea

("New York schools have banned the story of the Nativity and Christmas carols."—News item.)

Teach the kiddies anything—
Breadth of vision show...
Up to any point that might
Make their spirits glow.

Let a million things seep in
To corrode and mar...
But be very firm about
Christmas and a Star.

Nonchalant, oh very, be
Of the things that blight
Children's mind, but cautious be
Of the Holy Night.

Among the organizations listed as subversive by the Attorney General is Nature Friends of America. Students of the Redbird, do you suppose?

"Guns and War Toys Feature Children's Christmas Exhibits."—headline.

* * *

How in the world did the toy makers overlook a rocket sled?

There is only one way to explain why some people gave the recent fight to Joe Louis. They must have thought he was trying for a no-hitter.

* * *

What were they scoring, anyhow—a championship fight or a gin-rum game?

"No challenger ever won a heavyweight crown running away."—N. Y. Times.

* * *

No? What was Gene Tunney doing in that first bout with Dempsey most of the way?

That Nip in the Air

By Martin R. Miller

Various other climatological manifestations seem to receive more attention than the first good hard freeze of winter, a situation which needs correction.

Seasonal phenomena such as the first heavy snowfall, the turning of the leaves in autumn and the first crocus in spring are occasions for writers to pen paeans. But these conditions are more ephemeral than a good solid freeze.

A nice, clean, cold nip in the air at 10 or 15 degrees is half of what makes up our status in the Temperate Zone of the world, the other half, of course, being our 90-degree summer weather.

This is the season when an Ohioan has to keep hustling to maintain pace with his nose, which may be running on fast time, even though its owner has reverted to slow time.

People move briskly as they add antifreeze to the radiators of their autos, drain the outside water taps of their homes, put straw on their strawberries and maybe mulch their roses.

The skin-tingling chill of the breeze lends credence to the theory that our Temperate Zone produces the greatest human advancement because it is the best for mankind, not so enervating as the heat of the Torrid Zone, not as cold as the Frigid Zones.

Heels Too High

A New York foot specialist is protesting against the "New Look" as applied to women's feet. Dr. Dudley J. Morton, in the current issue of "Hygeia," the American Medical Association's health magazine, said fashion's decree of higher heels for women was "based on an artificially promoted concept of beauty which is fundamentally unreal."

A member of the teaching staff at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia university, Dr. Morton contended that higher heels "increase grestly the toe ailments and deformities" of women by throwing the weight on the forepart of the feet. In the larger cities where the influence of fashion is strongest he said 10 women already have foot trouble to one man.

SIX ACCIDENTS ON ICY STREETS

Include Three-Car Collision and a Hit-Skip Crash.

Icy streets were given as the cause for six traffic accidents occurring yesterday between 11 a. m. and 6 p. m., according to a report by city police.

The first, at 11:50 a. m., involved a car driven by Chelsey Emerson Winsor, 19, of near Marion and another car, driver of which was unknown, police said. According to the report minor damage resulted to the Winsor car, eastbound on Broad street, when it was struck by the other car which was headed south on Henry street.

A three-car collision on North State street at 5:09 p. m. resulted in considerable damage to all three vehicles. A car driven by Francis E. Orians, 22, of 152½ North State street collided with an American Railway Express truck driven by Elmer J. Wintringham, 26, of 620 Park street, knocking it into a parked car owned by Donald Smith of 463 North State street, police reported. Both the truck and car were northbound when Wintringham started to make a left turn into an alley and the Orians car was unable to stop on the snow-covered pavement.

Two accidents, one a hit-skip, happened at 5:20 p. m. A parked car owned by Harry O. Retterer, 34, of near Marysville had the left side and fender damaged when another car, driver of which was unknown, collided with it.

Cars driven by Kathryn J. Buck, 29, of 123 Selby court and Charles Carey Boyd, 79, of 616 Wilson avenue were damaged slightly when they collided at Mount Vernon avenue and Cummins street. Mr. Boyd was starting to turn left from Mount Vernon avenue and the Buck car failed to stop in time.

INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICE UNDER FIRE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 — A house appropriations subcommittee today turned over to the justice department and other federal agencies an investigator's report that "a condition which may embrace criminality exists in the Boston office" of the internal revenue bureau.

The subcommittee, headed by Representative Canfield (R-NJ), suggested "appropriate action" by the attorney general, the treasury department, the internal revenue commission and the civil service commission.

The committee also sent a printed copy of its hearings and record to Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, because funds of that agency were said to be involved.

There was no formal committee report, only the transcript of the secret hearings being made public.

The subcommittee investigation was based on a report of Robert E. Lee, chief of the committee's investigating staff, that "a review of the evidential material" appears to indicate in the Boston office:

"1. A disregard of trust funds.

"2. Lack of proper control and supervision over various collections from outside charitable and political organizations, including the march of dimes and the Jefferson day dinners.

"3. That the civil and criminal sections of the Hatch act may have been deliberately and consistently violated by the office of the collector at Boston, Mass."

Lee's report, dated Dec. 3, identified Denis W. Delaney as the collector of internal revenue at Boston.

Lee is a former FBI agent. In his report, he asserted reductions made early this year by congress in the treasury department's operating funds appear "to have been deliberately applied to the field staff of the internal revenue service, predominantly in the enforcement arm."

The investigation started as a result of reports to the committee that the treasury department had "improperly" distributed the budget cuts.

U.S. CALLS FOR HALT ON RUSSIAN GRAB

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Dec. 11—A firm United States demand upon Russia to halt the removal of reparations from eastern Germany confronted Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today and upon his answer may hinge the success or failure of the big four conference here.

Molotov's reply may be made at today's meeting at which the council is expected to turn its attention directly to the question of reparations—a matter which has stymied agreement for a week on a dozen other issues related to Germany's economic unification.

Authoritative government sources said Molotov was also expected to give his reaction to reports that the U. S. and Britain have reached a tentative agreement revising last year's pact for economic fusion of the American and British zones of Germany so as to give the U. S. control over economic and financial policies.

British informants said the new arrangements, effective Jan. 1 probably would "open the way for a new line of attack" on the western powers' policy in Germany.

In the bluntest language he has yet used during the conference Secretary of State George C. Marshall yesterday accused Russia of extracting German assets at the rate of $500,000,000 a year while the United States and Britain have been pouring in $700,000,000 to keep Germany alive.

By The Associated Press

LIMA, O., Dec. 11 — Calvin Henderson, 19, was stabbed fatally last night and police arrested his 18-year-old widow this morning at the home of a friend. No charges were filed immediately.

Coroner Harry E. Lewis quoted Henderson's mother, Mrs. Marie Henderson, as saying the youth was slain during a domestic quarrel.

"Santa" Won't Have To Serve on Jury

By The Associated Press

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. 11 — "How can I refuse?" City Judge Walter J. Relihan observed when "Santa Claus" asked to be excused from jury duty.

J. Franklin Talbott, department store St. Nick, pleaded yesterday.

"I'd just as soon serve some other time, judge. I wouldn't want to disappoint those kids."

EMPIRE STEEL SALE PLANS PROTESTED

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O, Dec. 11—An Empire Steel Corp stockholder informed other stockholders today he believed sale of the firm to the Studebaker corporation was being proposed at "a fraction of its real value."

Empire Steel directors voted Dec. 2 to sell the plant here to Studebaker for $7,130,000.

Peter Beasley of New York City, in a telegram to stockholders said:

"Warning Directors of our company, Empire Steel Corp., have mailed stockholders proposal that we vote to sell our company for what I believe is a fraction of its real value. I am informed many Empire directors are receiving special benefits in connection with this proposed sale. Believe much valuable information has been withheld from you which, in my opinion, should cause you to vote against proposed sale when this information is exposed. Am forwarding important letters and proxies to you."

The stockholders meet Dec. 19 to consider the sale.

An informative letter to stockholders, distributed yesterday by the firm, disclosed that William J. Mericka and Charles A. Smith, Empire directors, also are with William J. Mericka & Co. of Cleveland, one of the two firms which negotiated the proposed sale. Another director, Samuel Magid, is an officer of Hill Thompson Co., the other negotiating firm.

Empire President D. W. Frease said the board of directors voted Dec. 2 to pay $150,000 to the Mericka and Hill Thompson companies for negotiation services. A spokesman said the negotiators originally asked $225,000 in fees.

Empire Steel's plant has a capacity of 350,000 tons annually including 120,000 tons of hot rolled sheet steel.

SLAIN

pedals of the car also were blood-stained.

Coroner Mitchell Spyker said Rice, who wore a built up shoe with a four-inch sole on his left foot, died from a bullet wound in the head.

However, Spyker said a preliminary investigation indicated the neck wound could have been caused by the body being thrown from a speeding automobile and striking lattice work on the bridge.

Capt. Hugh Leggett of the sheriff's office said investigators believed Rice's slayer may have intended to hide the body temporarily in the muddy Olentangy river.

"There were blood stains for several feet on the bridge, and the lattice work was splattered with blood. Our preliminary investigation shows that this would have happened if the body was thrown from a speeding car," Leggett said.

Mrs. Rice Hysterical

Mrs. Rice became hysterical and could not be questioned after a family physician made positive identification, Leggett said.

Leggett also said the motorist who found the body did not give his name in telephoning the sheriff's office.

Rice apparently had expected to close a deal for the car after advertising it for sale, Leggett said. A bill of sale and car insurance papers were found in his pockets.

Sgt. Henry Keely, special investigator for the sheriff's office, said other memoranda found in Rice's pockets indicated he recently had traded a 1946-model car for the 1947 one.

15 HEAVY-DUTY ENGINES ARE ORDERED BY C. & O.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Dec. 11—Orders for 15 heavy-duty locomotives were placed with Lima-Hamilton Corp. yesterday by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. The engines, to be built at Lima, will cost $5,800,000 and are scheduled for delivery next July.

Lakes were brought to America by early European colonists.

Murder Trial Testimony Heard

the witness stand later in the trial. No object was entered by the state.

Classmate Testifies

The state next called Norma Jean Sparks, Prospect High school student and classmate of Roxie. Under questioning she testified to Roxie's presence at school the day of the murder, at the Prospect-Chesterville football game, of the delay in returning home after the game occasioned by a flat tire on the school bus and of Roxie's leaving her house in Prospect about 6:30 p. m. after saying "I'd better be getting home." Miss Sparks said she recognized the articles of clothing presented for her examination as belonging to Roxie.

Under cross examination when asked by attorney Carhart if she was sure they were the ones Roxie wore that day, she said, "They look like them." She admitted knowing Roxie for five days prior to the date of the murder. Under further questioning by Carhart, she said that Roxie had started for home alone in spite of arrangements made by a neighbor family to pick her up together with their daughter and take her home. The fact that an arrangement had been made that would get Roxie home after the bus breakdown had made the girls late in returning to Prospect, had not been previously brought to light.

Tell of Seeing Roxie

Mrs. Belva Berry of Prospect and Mrs. Bertha Hetzer, who resides on Route 47 about three miles east of Prospect, were called to the stand and testified that they had seen Roxie pass by on foot. On cross examination the former admitted that the time she fixed, (7:30 p. m.) when Roxie passed by her house may have differed somewhat either way. The latter did not identify the girl, as she did not see her face but noted the clothes worn were similar to the ones exhibited by the state. She also testified that a Ford car turned around after Roxie passed and followed the direction the girl had taken.

Also called by the state were Donald Green, 14-year-old brother of the slain girl, who spoke up clearly to tell about the car that stopped by their house and then go quickly away and of finding Roxie's hair ribbon, shoe and coin purse along the road by their lane the next morning.

Dale Hughes, Marion photographer, testified that three photos of the body entered as exhibits by the state were taken by him, one at the scene and two at the Merle Hughes mortuary.

Yesterday Afternoon's Session

The regular jury of eight men and four women was sworn in at the beginning of yesterday afternoon's session immediately after the prosecution and defense attorneys announced they would exercise no more peremptory challenges to remove tentatively seated jurors.

Both sides had used two of their six peremptory challenges when the noon recess was taken yesterday. After the oath was administered the 12 by Court Clerk Calvin Oborn the court began the task of seating a thirteenth, or alternative juror who will hear all the testimony but who will participate in the deliberation at the end of the trial only in case one of the regulars is forced to withdraw.

After four prospective jurors were examined Wilbur S. Dingler of 519 Girard avenue was seated as the alternate. Others called previously, but dismissed, were Mrs. Lucille Mayfield of 571 Blake avenue, excused on peremptory challenge by the prosecution; Guy Shambaugh of 175 Curtis court, excused because of opposition to capital punishment; and Ben Zink of 465 Patterson street, excused as being over 70 years of age.

Prospective jurors called but who were not present in the courtroom includes George Henry of Caledonia, Clair F. Shenefield of 735 North State street, Ruthella Woods of near Marion, Edward Brandt of 286 Bellefontaine avenue, William Orians of near Morral, Laura Price of near Prospect.

Members of Jury

The jury is composed of the following:

Walter A. Dorsey of 293 South Vine street, industrialist; Mrs. James E. Frew of 225 South Greenwood, housewife; Carl Fletcher of near Marion, farm implement dealer; Mrs. Frank Fralich of 387 Blaine avenue, housewife; Edward H. Huggins of 549 Delaware avenue, retired grocery salesman; J. C. Sparrock of Caledonia, real estate dealer; James M. Cusic of 344 Mary street, retired policeman, L. E. Moyer of Waldo, farmer; Howard Hecker of near Prospect, farmer; Mrs. Belle Donaugh of 439 Ballentine avenue, housewife; Carl West of 522 Polk street, truck driver for city of Marion; Mrs. Geneva Baldauf of 431 Olney avenue, housewife; and Wilbur S. Dingler of 519 Girard avenue, retired barber.

After the jury was finally seated Judge Smith admonished the members that they would not be permitted to discuss the matter with any one during the course of the trial. He also instructed against discussion of the case among themselves until all evidence and the court's charge has been heard.

With the jury preliminaries out of the way at 1:45 p. m. Judge Smith called a recess until 2 p. m. Immediately after the resumption of the trial Prosecutor Reed made a motion asking that the jury be taken to view the scene of the crime and other places pertinent to the case.

Attorney Ralph Carhart said the defense would join in the request and Judge Smith declared the motion would be allowed. The judge instructed the jury they would be under the supervision of Bailiff Fred Miller and would be permitted to speak to no one else concerning the case. The bailiff was instructed as to the places to be shown the jury.

Before sending the jury on the trip Judge Smith informed Shappard it was his privilege to accompany the jury if he desired. Attorney Ralph Carhart said Shappard would do so.

Travel In Taxis

The jurors were placed in three taxi cab for the trip. Accompanying the group also were the attorneys in separate cars.

The cavalcade was led by Sheriff LeRoy Retterer and Deputy Sheriff Ed Fink in whose car Shappard rode.

The first stop was made at the Prospect school, where Roxie had ended a trip home from a football game not more than an hour before she was killed. The party followed her course east out of Prospect on route 47 as she walked toward the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green, 4½ miles away on the Lauer road. They passed the spot on route 47 where Shappard said he picked Roxie up to give her a ride home.

The next stop was the Green home where the jurors left the taxis in a snow storm to view the spot where Roxie's purse, a hair ribbon and one of her shoes were found along the highway at the entrance to the Green driveway.

Reach "Turning Point"

The cars turned around in the Harold Anderson driveway a short distance north of the Green home—the same place where Shappard told authorities he turned his 1928 model A Ford car the night Roxie was murdered.

Following the Lauer road back to route 47 Sheriff Retterer led the cars eastward a short distance to the intersection of the Rittenhouse county road. After turning south at this point the cars were stopped and the bailiff walked to each taxi to identify the highway for the jurors.

After traveling two miles southward the cars were turned east on the Westfield-Norton road, which also was identified for the jurors. Both these highways will figure in the testimony since they are the route Shappard said he took from the Green home to the spot east of Norton where the body was found.

Where Body Was Found

Continuing through Norton the cars proceeded eastward on the same Westfield-Norton road to a spot 1.7 miles east of the town where the body of the girl, partly hidden by weeds and bushes, was pointed out by Shappard on the morning of Sept. 29.

Again all jurors left the cabs for a careful survey of the spot and 500 feet to the east, on the opposite side of the road, they were shown the place where a carpenter's claw hammer, the murder weapon, was found.

The jury then was brought back into Waldo, circling over the same roads Shappard said he traveled the night the girl was killed. As the cars came into Waldo they passed the beer parlor where Shappard said he bought half a dozen bottlees of beer before returning to his home in Prospect.

U.S. CLOSES PACT FOR PANAMA LEASES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 — A new agreement with Panama for the lease of 14 airfields and other military sites largely rounded out today this country's master plan for air age defense with a ring of distant bases.

If ratified by the Panamanian assembly which has been summoned into session Friday, the agreement promises to safeguard the Panama Canal to a degree American officials consider satisfactory under present world conditions.

The Pacific approaches to the United States already have been sealed by a United Nations agreement giving this country sole trusteeship over the former Japanese mandated islands.

And in the far north—the most vital pathway over the top of the world—Canada and the United States are cooperating closely on defense measures under a formal agreement to extend their wartime joint planning.

China Reselling Huge War Surplus Stock

By The Associated Press

SHANGHAI, Dec. 11—The Chinese government is reselling to America and the world in general at least 2,000,000 tons of Pacific island war surplus which China received in settlement of a wartime U. S. debt of $174,000,000.

This was disclosed today when a contract was signed whereby the Bethlehem Steel Corp. will buy approximately 1,000,000 tons of scrap for $30,000,000.

The scrap was sold directly to General Commodities Corp., an American firm which acted as agent for Bethlehem. It was declared to be the biggest purchase of scrap in Bethlehem's history and the largest shipping contract ever signed in the far east.

'Frisco Called Second Largest Red Center

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11 — The San Francisco grand jury termed the city the second largest Communist center in the United States in a report last night urging establishment of a police intelligence department to hunt Reds.

The report recommended that the Communist party "be immediately outlawed in the United States.

JAP BEAUTY MURDERED

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, Dec. 11—Yoriko Miyao, 23, famed as the most beautiful girl in Tokyo's Shimbashi district, was stabbed to death and her mother and sister wounded by two robbers last night. The thugs, armed with 12-inch butcher knives, were captured.

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 11—Lt. Col. Glenn A. Rafferty of Napoleon, O., was among 26 U. S. Army officers decorated yesterday at the command and general staff college. He was presented the Army commendation ribbon.

Speed Mark Claimed By Aviatrix Cochran

By The Associated Press

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Dec. 11—Aviatrix Jacqueline Cochran, flying "for fun," claims a world speed record of 469.5 miles an hour for a 100 kilometer (62.136 miles) closed course with a propeller-driven plane.

While her husband, Floyd B Odlum, watched, Miss Cochran whipped her P-51 Mustang around the triangular course yesterday at a rate she said was only 28 miles an hour slower than the jet plane record for a similar route.

There are more than 16,600 barn fires every year.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Turrible, Turrible, Turrible!"

Ben Ryder is back! After twenty years in Capital City, Ben has retired and come to enjoy life in the family house on Maple Street.

First thing Ben does is write us complaining how Our Town has changed. "Why, there's no mud in the streets to sink up to your ankles in!" he says. "No pistol feuding in the town square! No moonshine liquor or Saturday night brawls! Nothing to do but settle for a temperate glass of beer in a law-abiding tavern!"

"Turrible, turrible, turrible," Ben says, "how a town can get run down in twenty years!" And then Ben takes his tongue out of his cheek and tells us how proud he is of the orderly, law-abiding atmosphere he finds here.

And from where I sit, you can point to that growing preference for a moderate, wholesome glass of beer as one reason folks in Our Town are so temperate, and neighborly and well-behaved.

WELDERS ARRANGE FOR MARION NIGHT

...gram Scheduled Tomorrow in Columbus.

... residents engaged in ...ing occupation have been ... attend the December ...eeting of the Columbus ... the American Welding ... the Ft. Hayes hotel in ... Friday.

...ociety is sponsoring a ...Night program under a ...pted policy of recogni...ders in the communi... sphere of the Colum...

...Voldrich, chapter chairman, pointed out that Marion is one of the welding centers in Central Ohio with its large proportion of specialization in heavy industry. For that reason Marion, with an estimated 200 or more welders, was selected to lead off the guest night series. The chapter feels, it was said, that mutual benefit may be realized in closer communion with the local personnel.

Dinner is to be served at 6:30 with a technical session to follow at 8 p. m. Guest speaker will be Dr. William G. Theisinger, manager of technical plate sales of Lukens Steel company and Subsidiaries Inc. of Coatesville, Pa.

Dr. Theisinger, who will speak on "The Welding of Clad Steels," is a graduate of Harvard and also obtained his advanced degrees at that university. Prior to his association with Lukens in 1935 he was associated with the Harrisburg Steel Corp and the Western Pipe and Steel Co. of California.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Inflation continues its mad march. The price of pistol permits has been jumped from $1.50 to $10 in New York.

* * *

This is the rawest type of discrimination against the low income group. They simply can't afford to shoot anybody at today's prices.

* * *

A five-cent levy on taxi rides also is proposed. Mayor O'Dwyer feels that it is worth the current price of a subway ride not to have to ride in the subway in the future.

* * *

But there is encouraging news... 10 civic leaders have given their impression of what the world will be like in 2047 and they all feel that there will be people in it.

* * *

Meanwhile there is continuing doubt over who really won the Louis-Walcott fight but that's not strange. Many are uncertain as to who won the war and that looked like a clear-cut decision at the time.

* * *

But there is one consolation... The defeat of totalitarianism seems to have made Europe safe for totalitarianism.

County To Get Larger Share of Seal Funds

Dr. O. M. Young of 816 East Church street, vice president of the Marion county Tuberculosis and Health association, announced today that he will attend the semi-annual meeting of the state board of directors Friday in Columbus.

Sending of a representative to the state meeting to assist in planning the statewide program will entitle the Marion County association to an additional sum of money from the annual sale of Christmas seals. Normally 80 per cent of funds raised are given to local use. Under the present system of participating in the planning, approximately 85 percent of the Christmas Seal fund will be used on tuberculosis treatment in Marion county.

Rheumatic fever is the second most frequent cause of death among people in the 20 to 24 age group in the United States.

GIANT COAL DOCK TO OPEN IN SPRING

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 11 — The New York Central and Baltimore & Ohio railroads announced today the "most modern" coal and ore docks on the Great Lakes—an $18,500,000 facility being built by the two lines—will open here next spring.

Located on Maumee bay, the docks will be able to handle 20,000,000 tons of coal and 4,500,000 tons of ore annually, it was said.

The facility is to be operated by the Lakefront Dock and Railroad Terminal Co., owned jointly by the two railroads, and will include an adjacent railroad yard with 56 miles of track and a 5,400-car capacity.

Supplementing the main yards, will be nine smaller yards for coal dumpers and ore handling machines and, with capacities of 110 to 250 cars each.

The announcement said the docks would be able to serve three coal boats and one ore-carrying vessel simultaneously. Winter mooring for 21 vessels will be furnished by slips between and along-side the piers.

To provide for maneuvering area between the docks and lake channel, more than 2,500,000 cubic yards of lake bottom must be dredged, the railroads reported.

SHOT AT WILD ACRES

By The United Press

YORK, Pa.—Mrs. Samuel J. Norbeck was attending a family outing at Wild Acres—where apparently most anything can happen. While combing her hair, she felt a sudden sting, noticed blood flowing from a hand wound and discovered she had been shot by a stray bullet.

Happy Is the Family

With These Frigidaire Electrical Servants for Christmas

Sold in Marion only by Schaffner's

It's dinner time on Christmas Day! Mother's roast turkey is done to a turn in the Frigidaire automatic oven. While the turkey was electrically roasting in one oven, a cake was baking in the extra oven of the deluxe Frigidaire range. The cake will be served with fresh strawberries saved since last summer in the Frigidaire home freezer. The Frigidaire refrigerator shown at the upper right will easily hold on its spacious shelves, all the Christmas dinner left-overs in addition to other foods. Frigidaire's laundry equipment was responsible for the clean gleam of the white table linens. With plenty of hot water always on tap in the Frigidaire water heater and with the very best of automatic washing machines and electric dryers, Mother's work this Christmas was light enough that for once she could actually enjoy getting ready for the holidays.

Gen. De Gaulle and his followers believe that normal government formed by a coalition of parties cannot be strong enough and stable enough to take the measures—all of them politically unpopular—which will have to be taken if the French economy is to be put in order.

We shall see in the next few months whether or not he is right—whether a government like the present government, which has so bravely met the Communist challenge can also meet the challenge of the countless vested interests which are involved in the inflation and the economic disorder.

French Group Protests Action Against Eisler

By The United Press

PARIS, Dec. 11—A spokesman for the United States embassy said today that 23 French writers, artists and movie stars, acting at the request of Charlie Chaplin, had protested the deportation proceedings against Hans Eisler, Hollywood composer.

Eisler is scheduled to be deported to the American zone of Germany because of his alleged Communist activities in the United States.

French intellectuals signed the protest after Chaplin sent a telegram to Pablo Picasso, French artist, asking him to head a committee of French artists to fight the deportation.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY SET BY CLUB

Children at County Children's Home To Be Guests.

Final arrangements were discussed for the annual Christmas party to be given by the Y's Men's Club for the children of the Marion County Children's Home Thursday evening, Dec 18, when the club met Wednesday night at the Y M C A Lowell Shambaugh, committee chairman, announced the party would be held in the Club Co-ed Rooms at the Y M C A. that Co-ed club members had volunteered to help serve the youngsters and that Santa Claus would be on hand to distribute the gifts

The project coordinator for the Y's Men, Walter Kelsey, advised that the club would furnish Christmas music in the downtown area during the afternoon and evening shopping hours beginning Friday Dec 19 and continuing up until Christmas Eve

Kelsey also announced that upon the advice received from local doctors and members of the City hospital staff that he felt it advisable to shelve for the time-being the program to buy projectors that would project books on ceilings and would enable helpless invalids to read without assistance He explained that there was apparently little, if any need for such equipment in Marion at present

It was announced that Robert Klatt would head the committee to man one of the Salvation Army kettles in the downtown area on the Saturday preceding Christmas. Two club members will be on duty each hour from 10 a m to 6 p m that day

William Isaly general manager of the Isaly Creamery Products in Ft. Wayne, Ind and former president of the Y's Men was an honored guest

Prior to the business meeting, Ivan Johnson, editor of the Marion Power Shovel company's publication "Scoop," and his assistant, Charles Elliott, took a group picture of the club to be used in conjunction with an article in their paper on the Y's Men's recent tour of the Shovel Company's plant

Cuyahoga Co. Welfare Levy Still in Doubt

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Dec 11—Cuyahoga county's $9,000,000 welfare levy, reported passed by three-tenths of a vote following a recount, today again faced uncertainty.

Board of elections officials figured the issue finally settled when after rechecking 1,254 of 1,469 voting places, the necessary 65 per cent majority favoring the levy was established, yesterday

Secretary of State Edward J Hummel, however, ruled the Nov 4 election count could not be changed unless all voting places were rechecked

Assistant County Prosecutor Saul S Danaceau previously had advised the board this would not be necessary.

The levy, to care for the sick, needy, crippled and homeless, failed by 841 votes in the first tabulating to gain a sufficient majority.

In Plain Words

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

THERE'S a big difference between the programs of President Truman and the Republicans for controlling living costs.

The Republicans' is far milder. The great difference between the two is this:

1. Mr. Truman asked congress to pass a number of laws giving the government power to stop inflation if it gets much worse.

For example: Power to put back price and wage controls if prices keep going up.

2. The Republicans want no part of price and wage controls imposed by the government. They want mainly voluntary control of living costs.

For example: Letting business do its own controlling by voluntarily keeping prices down or cutting them or doing other things to reach that end.

MARLOW

So, under the program offered by the Republican leaders of the Republican - controlled congress this is still the score:

Labor would be free to fight for higher wages. Business would be free to lower prices. It also would be free to raise them.

The Republicans hope to get their program passed by congress by Dec. 19.

Will it work? Is it enough to stop inflation? You'll have to wait and see.

Suppose it doesn't work. When will we know it's not working? Probably in three or four months, if the Republicans ram their program through this month.

Suppose it doesn't work. What then? Worse inflation, probably, with prices going higher and labor fighting for higher wages.

If the Republicans' program doesn't work, will they then give Mr. Truman by law the power he asked of congress to control living costs?

That'll put the Republicans on the spot. They've already said they're against government control of prices and wages in peacetime.

THE PROGRAM THEY came up with yesterday is the Republican answer to Mr. Truman, the Republican attempt at solving inflation.

The Republicans—after they denounced Mr. Truman's program in November—have been criticized for not offering one of their own.

So now they've offered one. And it's serious business for both Republicans and Democrats.

Since 1948 is the big election year, for president and congress, the politicians in both parties have to worry about inflation.

Living costs are taking more and more money out of the pockets of Americans, and American voters, and they won't forget it.

They'll probably take out their anger on the party—Republican or Democratic — which they'll blame if inflation gets worse.

If the Republicans' mild program fails to stop the rise in living costs, Mr. Truman is in a position to tell the voters:

"See. I asked for the power to stop this inflation but the Republicans wouldn't give it to me."

IN NOVEMBER, WHEN he asked for the power, Mr. Truman made it clear he did not intend to use it right away but only later if inflation grew worse.

When, later? Maybe not before the spring, his advisers have said.

If the Republican program fails — and shows clearly in the next few months that it's failing —they can say:

"We wanted to try the voluntary method first."

Maybe then—it would be spring by then—they might vote Mr. Truman the power he asked for in November.

Well, if Mr. Truman didn't figure on using the power until spring and if the Republicans should give it to him in the spring. Nothing is lost is it?

Yes, months will have been lost. If congress voted him the power now, months would be needed to set up the machinery to use the power.

If congress votes him the power in the spring, months still will be needed to set up the machinery, months in which inflation can grow still worse.

But if the Republicans' program works, they can tell the voters:

"Mr. Truman wanted to control inflation by police methods but we did it on a vountary basis."

SAYS RUSSIAN SHIPS CARRYING U.S. COAL

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—Rep. Alvin Weichel (R-Ohio), chairman of the house merchant marine committee, says Russian ships are carrying coal "badly needed here at home" to Europe, "enabling Joe Stalin to make himself a good fellow at our expense."

He urged an immediate embargo on coal exports in a statement to the house yesterday.

Four Russian ships left the United States in October, he said, three bound for Stockholm, Sweden, and one for a port named Venga, which he was unable to identify further.

At least two of the ships are owned by the United States and went to Russia under lend-lease, he said, and there is a possibility the others are U. S. owned too. Weichel has been campaigning for immediate return of 95 ships the United States loaned to Russia during the war.

Weichel pointed out the ships left "after President Truman asked for millions to stop Communism in Europe," yet by such shipments "Stalin is able to make himself a good fellow with other countries in his effort to spread Communism, with the aid of the President in permitting use of U. S. owned ships to carry away coal badly needed here at home."

Court Awards State Officials Pay Boosts

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 11—State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson today was under state supreme court orders to pay Tax Commissioner C. Emery Glander and Utilities Commissioner Harry Miller salary increases granted them by the 1947 legislature.

Ferguson had refused to pay on the grounds that the terms for which Glander and Miller were appointed had not expired; thus they were not eligible for the pay boosts under new legislation concerning appointive office holders.

Glander's salary was increased from $6,500 to $9,000 a year; Miller's from $6,000 to $9,000.

Terms of both officials had expired early in the year, but Gov. Thomas J. Herbert withheld reappointment until the salary increases were voted. They continued to serve in the interim.

A majority of the court held their new terms did not commence until dates of reappointment after the salary increases became effective.

The decision will enable a number of other state officials also to draw salary increases.

STATE MAY ACQUIRE PLUM BROOK SITE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 — An interior conservation official disclosed with war assets administration needs yesterday possible early acquisition of a 2,400-acre site in the Plum Brook Ordnance Works for a medical research center.

Harry E. Johnson, chief of the management section of the state conservation division, told a reporter the division and the state department of health are jointly interested in obtaining the land and are now on a study of the relation of animal diseases to human beings.

Study of rabies and tularemia, commonly known as rabbit fever, would be part of the long-term project, he said.

Johnson said the 6,000-acre plant in Erie county has been declared surplus and the 2,400 acres in which the state is interested is "sub-marginal" land not fit for agricultural purposes. The remainder of the tract is being sold by the federal land bank as farm land.

Johnson said he "hoped" to be able to work out a plan whereby the state could obtain the land without cost or at a "nominal" fee.

Among the notable libraries of colonial America were those of Elder William Brewster, Governor Winthrop and Dr. Cotton Mather.

4 U.S. AIRMEN SAFE AS PLANE CRASHES

ISTANBUL TURKEY, Dec. 11 —Four American soldiers were safe and unhurt today after ditching their C-47 transport plane and parachuting to earth in western Turkey on a flight from Rome to Baghdad.

The pilot, Lt. Col. James F. Coward of Erwin, Tenn., the U. S. air attache at Baghdad, said he had planned to land Tuesday night at Athens but the weather closed in and he was unable to locate the Greek capital. He flew on, and with the fuel supply almost exhausted he finally ordered the plane abandoned.

Those aboard—Coward, Capt. A. W. McMurray of North Carolina, Staff Sgt. Hugh Willis of Hickory, N. C., and Staff Sgt. Paul A. Barnes of Springfield, O., all assigned to the military attache's office at Baghdad—bailed out and the transport, on automatic pilot, crashed in hilly farm country south of Susigirlik in Balikeshir province.

Two cocker spaniels aboard escaped unhurt.

Prospect Rifle Club Range Schedule Set

Plans were made to open the Prospect Rifle and Pistol club's new indoor range to the public each Thursday night at a meeting of the club Friday night. On this night, the range will be under the supervision of Dave Redmon, Dr. N. E. Rickey, Robert D. Norris and E. W. Williams, club members.

Sunday afternoons and Monday and Friday nights have been reserved by the club for members' use only, and Wednesday nights are reserved for junior instruction classes.

C. B. Gast was elected to serve a five-year term as range trustee along with Dr. Rickey, James F. Lauer, P. R. Collmer and R. L. Long. An announcement was made that the club membership now totals 30, and that the limit is 40. Former club members will receive priority until the first of the year over new applicants for club membership.

A report was made of the Central Ohio Pistol league's second indoor match of the season held recently at Olentangy Village range in Columbus. It was announced that a match in the Northwestern Ohio Rifle league was to be fired Tuesday at Galion, and the first league match to be fired in Prospect is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 16, when Kenton's rifle team will visit Prospect.

Ohioans Named For Rhodes Competition

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Dec. 11—Lt. Wesley W. Posvar of Cleveland, Martin A. Rush Jr., of Middletown, and Walter Elder of Gambier, will represent Ohio Saturday at Indianapolis in district competition for Rhodes scholarships.

They were selected over 11 other candidates yesterday for state honors.

Elder, 26, is a teacher of philosophy at Kenyon college. Rush, 23, expects to graduate from Miami university next June, and Posvar, 22, was top man in the 1946 class at West Point.

The district competition will involve 18 candidates—three each from Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin and Kentucky. Six of the 18 will receive scholarships to enter Oxford university in England next October.

The increase in U. S. population in the 1930s was less than half as great as in any previous decade.

Akron U. Defeats St. Francis, 79-48

By The Associated Press

Akron university's basketball Zippers racked up their second win in as many starts last night by knocking St. Francis of Pennsylvania out of the perfect-record class, 79-48, at Akron.

St. Francis, winner of its opening three games, never was closer than four points of Akron after the first few minutes of play. The Zippers' Hank Vaughn was high point man with 19.

Ohio came out second best in another inter-state game, Marshall college of Huntington, W. Va., lambasting Cedarville, 80-30, at Huntington. Marshall's freshman forward, Bob Koontz, got 26 points.

In an Ohio conference game Heidelberg's Student Princes defeated Ohio Northern, 46-35, at Tiffin. Gene Foster of Heidelberg was high with 11 points.

YOUNG'S RAIL HOPES JOLTED

Federal Examiner Gives N.Y.C. and C. & O. Merger Plan Setback.

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—Robert R. Young's dream of uniting his Chesapeake & Ohio railway with "the finest railroad property" in the country — the New York Central—has received an initial setback.

C. E. Boles, an examiner for the interstate commerce commission, has recommended that the commission deny the application of Young and another C. & O. official to become directors of the New York Central while retaining their C. & O. posts.

Young, who had clearly indicated his hope of eventually merging the two systems, assailed the recommendation as "another decision against public interest by a government bureaucrat."

The C. & O. board chairman said he and his fellow applicant, C. & O. President Robert J. Bowman, "propose to go on fighting for our right to assert C. and O.'s ownership management interest in the New York Central and for railway progress."

Boles also advised the commission not to grant C. & O.'s request for legal title and voting rights to its 400,000 shares of Central stock now held in trust by a commission order. It was after C. & O. acquired this largest single bloc of Central stock that Young and Bowman were invited to sit on the Central board.

Boles noted that C. & O. paid $18.98 each for its 400,000 shares of Central stock. The stock is currently selling at $13 a share, which indicates a loss of approximately $2,400,000 on the investment, he said.

"The stock of the New York Central was not purchased as an investment, but for the specific purpose of injecting applicant Young's influence and policies into the affairs of the New York Central," the report said.

The examiner said such "control" of more than one carrier was contrary to the interstate commerce act, and that approval of the C. & O. plan would be 'tantamount to sanctioning a violation" of the statute. He added that it "possible" would violate the Clayton anti-trust act as well.

In a footnote in the report Boles said:

"There is much in the record to indicate that purchase of the New York Central stock was made for the purpose of indulging a hobby of the applicant Young and for the further purpose of satisfying his personal ambition 'to be in the New York Central'."

"MORE BUREAUCRACY" YOUNG DECLARES

By The United Press

CLEVELAND, Dec. 11—Robert R. Young, chairman of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company, has assailed the recommendation of an ICC examiner that he be denied a seat on the N. Y. Central railroad board as "another decision against public interest by a government bureaucrat."

"Difficult as it is for us to accept this decision," Young said, "it is even more difficult for us to take the commission's two-faced justice. This is a serious charge, but so are the facts."

Young pointed out that Harry Hagerty, a Metropolitan Life Insurance company officer, was "quietly granted the right, without a hearing, to sit on the board of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and the Erie railroad, at the very time we were require to appear before the commission in elaborate proceedings in a futile attempt to obtain a similar right."

The first real life-boat was constructed in the middle of the 18th century by a London coachmaker who converted a Norway yawl into a "unimmergible boat."

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Dec. 11—Selective demand propped individual stocks today although many market leaders drifted to lower levels.

The buoyant rails of Wednesday ran into some offerings. Dealings slowed after a fairly active start but fractional irregularity ruled near midday.

Wall Street inclined to view three straight rising sessions as a technical comeback.

Occasional gainers included International Harvester, Caterpillar Tractor, Oliver Corp., Bethlehem Steel, American Telephone, Electric Power and Light, Kennecott, Johns-Manville, J. C. Penney Texas Co., Santa Fe, Pennsylvania Railroad and Great Northern Railway. Intermittent losers were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet General Motors, Chrysler, Northern Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio U. S. Rubber, United Aircraft, Westinghouse, Dow Chemical and Montgomery Ward.

Boston Red Sox Grab Off Another Star As American League Wails

Lure Outfielder Stan Spence From Senators for Culberson and Kozar

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Dec. 11—Skipper Joe McCarthy and general manager Cronin of the Boston Red Sox fiddled today while the rest of the American league burned.

The fire smouldering over the deal that sent three top flight players from St. Louis to Boston last night in the American league club office game further heated yesterday when the Red Sox lured Stan Spence, hard-hitting outfielder of the Washington Senators in a trade for reserve outfielder Lee Culberson and rookie second baseman Al Kozar.

Spence, expected to bolster the Red Sox outer patrol, is the fourth big name performer acquired by the McCarthy-Cronin combination since Marse Joe took over the helm last October.

Team To Beat In '48

The Red Sox had gained the title of the team to beat beat in '48" via last month's garnering of ace southpaw Vern Stephens and relieving pitchers Jack Kramer and Ellis Kinder from the St. Louis Browns for a flock of utility players and untried rookies and

Bill Veeck, president of the Cleveland Indians; Dan Topping, New York Yankees head, and Evans, general manager of the Detroit Tigers, said they were getting tired of seeing the Red Sox grab big name players right from under their noses.

Veeck said "Every offer I made to Washington was considerably better than the one the Senators accepted from Boston today' for Spence. "Only last night I offered Grif (Clark Griffith, Washington president) a deal that would sound fantastic in view of the players he got from Boston."

Evans Is Sore Too

"We offered $50,000 and three players for Berardino, but the Browns sent him to the Indians for less money and only one player," Evans complained. "Now we are not even given a chance to bid for a player who could help us."

Charles De Witt, secretary of the Browns, denied that the Browns ever received such an offer from Detroit, claiming that the only offer made by Evans was a cash outlay of $80,000 for Berardino.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, still seeking to strengthen their pitching staff, purchased veteran Elmer Riddle from the Cincinnati Reds for the $10,000 waiver price.

The three-day major league winter meetings come to an end today with a joint session and the leagues held separate closed meetings with the chief topic of discussion being the Pacific Coast league plan.

It was reported that the answer to the Coast league's bid for major league recognition was an emphatic "no."

GOALS IN TWO BOWLS

HARDING READY FOR DELAWARE SATURDAY

Marion Harding meets Delaware Willis for their second basketball game of the season at Edison gymnasium Saturday night.

The Prexies are set for Delaware. Coach Somerlot feels that his team is shaping up better with experience, and he has two teams ready for fast moving play.

The first team will be made up of Dick Riddle and Dick Gherman, forewards; Jim Rea and Dick Thomas, guards; and Jim Coss, center.

The second team has Dick Clark and Bob Short, forewards; Clarence Smith and Merle Daum, guards; and Ed Roseberry, center.

Coach Somerlot's system of substitution of the second team for the first team will insure a fresh squad at all times, instead of fresh individual players.

Daum and Smith are coming along fine he said, and will help strengthen the team considerably. Short will add power to the forward position and will make a good running mate for Clark. Ed Roseberry will alternate with Jim Coss at center.

Delaware will have Johnson back as their only varsity member of last year. The Presidents look forwurd to the first win Saturday night.

The varsity game starts at 8 p. m. and the reserve game at 7.

Rio Grande Cager Nets 27 Points Per Game

Rio Grande lost their first two games to Marietta and Salem though averaging 67 points per game.

Thomas coached Newt at Byesville when he first took up coaching duties after graduation from Denison university.

Newt is a brother of Mrs. Louis Conkle of 313 Marion avenue.

Denison Places 4 Men On A.P. All-Ohio Conference

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 11—New laurels were draped over Denison's all-conquering Big Red team today as four of the Granville grid greats won first positions on the 1947 Associated Press Ohio conference all-star squad.

The 22-college circuit's coaches and sports writers named the stars in conference-wide voting, and they recognized Denison's nine-game all-victory streak by putting other Big Red players on the second and third teams. The Findlay Oilers, undefeated in four league games, and whipped only once in 10 games, placed men on all three teams, as did Toledo, Glass Bowl champion and victor in nine of 11 contests.

Unusual was the fact that not a senior placed on the first team backfield, sophomore Bob Kilfoyle of John Carroll taking the quarterback post, juniors Ed Rupp of Denison and Paul Devine of Heidelberg grabbing the halfbacks, and big Ed Sustersic, Findlay's student wrestling coach, another junior, winning the fullback job in the closest kind of a race with Lee Tressel of Baldwin-Wallace.

Kilfoyle completed 71 of 143 passes for 1,044 yards and 11 touchdowns, averaged 37.5 yards on punts and kicked 17 of 35 extra points as he piloted the Blue Streaks to six wins in nine starts.

Rupp scored eight touchdowns for Denison, Devine nine for the Student Princes, and Sustersic 13 for the rampant Oilers.

Bill Hart, Denison's Little All-America star, and Bill Gall of Toledo won the end positions; Bill Demando of Baldwin-Wallace and Walt Cheslock of Denison the tackle jobs; Jim Taylor of Wittenberg and Bob Gorman of Case the guard berths, and Bill Wehr of Denison the center post.

Here's how the coaches rated the conference individual talent:

5,000 Hunters, 5,000 Deer—That's Ohio's Bright Outlook

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, Dec. 11—Ohio's nimrods turn to deer hunting Monday with the possibility that the five-day season in eight northeastern counties may be on a "deer-per-hunter" basis.

State Conservation Commissioner H. A. "Buck" Rider reported today that there are at least 4,000 to 5,000 deer in the area, where they have become such a traffic hazard that nearly 50 of them have been killed by autos since Nov. 15. A total of 185 have been killed in the last year.

Since the legislature last spring slapped an additional $5 fee on deer licenses, in addition to the regular $1.25 hunting license, Rider "guesses"—and he admits that "it's just a wild guess"—that there will be about 5,000 deer permits taken out.

From there on in, it's simple arithmetic. Five thousand deer; five thousand hunters—one each.

"Its true that there will be practically a deer for every hunter—but it's still up to the hunter to get it!"

Monday and Tuesday will be limited to bow-and-arrow artists in the eight counties—Ashtabula, Carroll, Columbiana, Geauga, Jefferson, Lake, Portage and Trumbull. The following three days the gunners take over—but they are limited to shotguns loaded with a single ball.

Either bucks or does can be taken, since the season was declared as a means of reducing the deer population that has overflowed from better-known Pennsylvania hunting areas.

The deer season will be the first since 1945, when the last of three consecutive southern Ohio seasons was conducted in Scioto, Adams and Pike counties. That area is barred to deer hunters this year, since the deer population there is again under control.

AUBURN COACH OUSTED

By The United Press

AUBURN, Ala., Dec. 11—Carl Voyles was ousted as Auburn football coach today when his contract was terminated "by mutual consent of both parties." Voyles had been under heavy fire of alumni since his team had a disastrous season, winning only two games and losing seven.

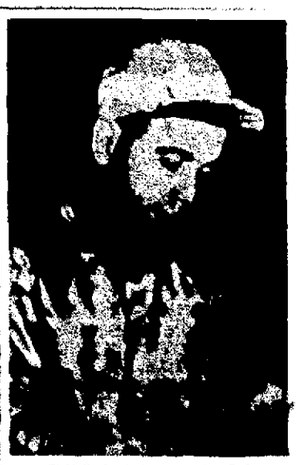
16 Big-Name Bowlers Left in All-Star Race

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 11—Sixteen big-name bowlers from the original field of 168 opened a four-day final match-game round-robin grind today for the seventh annual $2,000 All-Star National individual championship.

Charlie Johnson Jr., a 28-year-old mechanic from Bayonne, N. J., topped the qualifying rounds with a 36-game total of 7,586.

Others in the match-game finals included Walter Ward, Cleveland, 7,416, and Walter Johnson, Toledo, O., 7,341.



VETERAN JOCKEY Johnny Longden, who recently broke the modern day record of victories in a single season, relaxes by reading a paper in Bay Meadows tack room where he brought in four winners at the San Mateo, Calif., track to run season's string of victories to 308.

House of David Cagers To Tangle with McMillen Feed Quintet Sunday

Bearded Giants To Meet Marion's Best in Armory at 3 P. M., Preliminary at 2

By BILL DIEM
Marion Star Sports Editor

King Ben Purnell's bearded cage comedians, those prophets of basketball razzle-dazzle and winner of 180 of around 200 games per season—the House of David basketball team—will mosey into town Sunday to play the McMillen Feed Mill cagers in an exhibition game at the Armory.

The Great Bearded Ones last year met McMillen and shaved them by a mere three points, 48-45, on a swing up from Columbus on their Ohio tour

This year they'll meet the locals in the second game of a twin bill, the first of which is the Claridon Ex-Highs against the Prospect All-Stars at 2 p. m Sunday. Main contest starts at 3.

Beard in the Basket

The House of David boasts the tallest team in America this year—the squirt of the team is six-footer Leon "Ham" Hamilton Tallest is "Long John" Ludka, otherwise known as the Moose, who towers seven feet three inches and is forever catching his beard in the basket.

"Ham" is a veteran of ten years with the Davids and holds the world's record for the number of games played in succession—1,754 at the start of the season this year. He plays on the House of David baseball team in the summer. Hamilton, says the David publicity sheet, is considered the best passer in the basketball world.

"Long John" plays center and delights in reaching above an opponent's basket to pick out a potential score The Moose's 265 pounds rocked the Syracuse university hardwood when he was in college. It is a cinch to trounce on his instep as he wear's No. 16's.

He Shuns Gillette

Bud Scott, six-two forward, is another veteran of the Blue Bindle anathema and has been blushing at Gillette ads for five years. Nemesis of the team as high scorer, Bud hails from Missouri.

Former University of Michigan star, Bobby Roth, was playing coach of the Detroit Pro club for six years before joining the Davids and is their fastest man, their most successful comedian. He is a long shot artist.

Forward Sam Leiberman stands 6'5" and is a former Boston college star. He has been in pro basketball for several years

At guard is Tony "Big Boy" Keseta who is piled six feet three inches high. He is another former Detroit Pro cager.

They Don't Scare McMillen

Doesn't this array of tall talent scare McMillen? Not so, say Roy Lovett, personnel manager of the company and Gene Shellhorn, playing coach. McMillen has the best team they've ever floored, and they've won two city championships in the last three years They beat the Green Camp K. of P.—defending champs—54-32 in the Monday Night league opener Dec. 2 and walloped Hensel Brothers, 55-35, last Monday

The Feeds boast a galaxy of talent too, and though not as tall as the Davids, nor adorned with whiskers, they can hold their own on the hardwood.

Gene Shellhorn is in his third year with the Feeds and was a cage great in Harding. He was named All-N.C.O. guard in 1941 and 42, and All-Ohio in the latter year as the leading scorer of the Presies. Since graduating from Harding he has played for the Y-Indus and the Marion Angels besides McMillen. He and the rest of the starting five all play for the Angels this year. He stands 6'1".

Former LaRue Great

Kenny Jones, 6'2" center, played for LaRue three years and was the Marion County league's leading scorer.

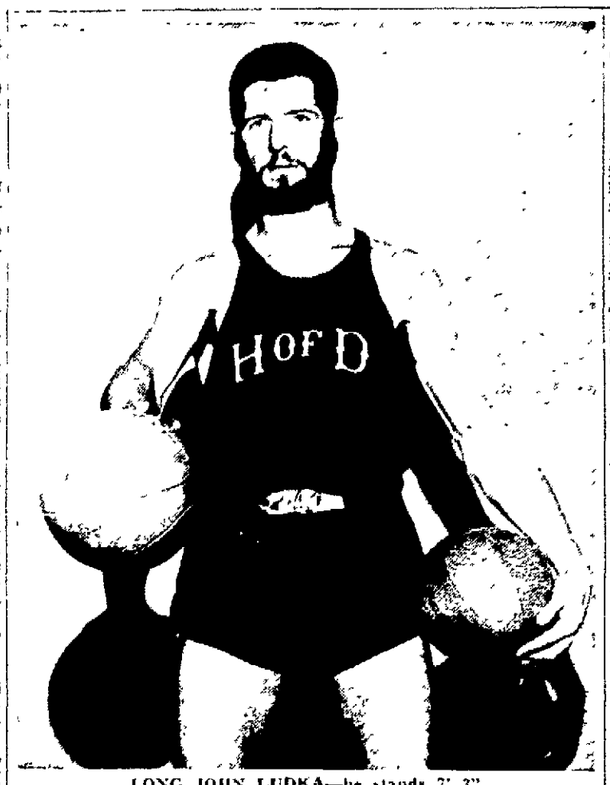
Carl Harbolt, a six-foot forward, was another Harding cager, graduating in 1943. He has also played for Y-Indus.

Guard Tom Moran specializes in setting up plays and is the Feed's floor man. He's 6'1½", and a fine ball handler.

Bob "Windy" Winterstellar graduated from St. Mary in 1943 with Moran and was high scorer in his senior year. He's a forward and stretches six feet. He's high scorer for the Feeds as well as the Angels this year

The second five are Gene Lehner, 6'3" center from Pleasant High school, Fritz Guy, guard formerly of Harding, Bob Joe Smith, a forward hailing from East Liverpool, Dick McCurdy, ex-Pleasant forward, and Don Dutt, a guard also of Pleasant

Besides the league games, the Feeds played and lost to the Buckeye Beavers of near Lima, 57-50, but as the Angels have won from Greenwich, 61-24, Roxie Rugs of Toledo, 78-46, and Birmingham, 49-46, while dropping a 52-50 game to the Mansfield Reformatory.



LONG JOHN LUDKA—he stands 7' 3"

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec 11—With all due respect to Johnny Berardino, Stan Spence, etc., the biggest deal made so far during the major league baseball meetings was when magician Joe Kuhel, Washington manager, spent an hour in the hotel lobby showing card tricks to Lou Boudreau and Ted Lyons . . . Detroit's Billy Evans maintains that everybody in the American league was "scared" by the Red Sox and Indians' dealings—especially the prices. "How can you pay $85,000 for a utility infielder?" Billy asks, and answers by saying "we can't" . . . The National leaguers at least seem to be trying . . . Bob Carpenter, the Phillies boss, told Herb Pennock: "The money is there if you can get anything worth while" But Manager Ben Chapman adds "You offer to make a trade and they won't talk; then they go home and two weeks later start asking how about it . . . Those guys must think you don't know what they need"

ONE OF THE sporting goods dealers at the meeting reports that he and his colleagues have figured out a cheap and simple way to sell a lot of football equipment . . . "You locate the best high school player within 100 miles of Pittsburgh and set up shop on his front porch In a couple of weeks you'll see every important college coach in America right there."

Lujack To Play Pro Football For Either Bears or Rockets

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Dec. 11—Johnny Lujack has decided to play professional football after he graduates from Notre Dame next spring but he can't make up his mind whether it will be with Chicago's Bears or their All-America conference rivals, the Rockets.

"As you know, I've been drafted by both clubs, but I'm not going to do anything until after I graduate," the Irish's great T-formation quarterback said last night just before receiving the Heisman memorial trophy.

13th Heisman Winner

The Connellsville, Pa., All-American is the 13th recipient of the annual award, presented to the outstanding college football player of the nation by the Downtown Athletic club in memory of the late John M. Heisman, for 37 years a coach and athletic director at eight different schools

"I want to play pro ball, but I haven't given much thought to a choice between the Bears and the Rockets yet," said the mild-mannered, unassuming star of the country's mythical national championship eleven

Val Lujack, oldest of four football-playing brothers, along with his father, John Lujack, Sr., and Mayor Abe I. Daniels of Connellsville, came here for the presentation ceremony, which was attended by 600 persons, including coaches, former players and previous recipients of the trophy.

Coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame was unable to attend since he stayed over in California for a few days. Lujack, hero of Notre Dame's 38-7 victory over Southern California last Saturday, was flown here to receive the award.

Army's Offense Best

Lujack said he considered the Army team the best offensive combination Notre Dame had encountered this season, while he rated Purdue as tops of Irish opponents defensively.

Lujack, who ranked third in the Heisman poll last year to Army's Glenn Davis and Georgia's Charlie Trippi, is the second Notre Dame athlete to win the award. Angelo Bertelli, Johnny's predecessor in the Irish signal-calling spot, won the trophy in 1943.

Big 9 Representatives Open Annual Meeting

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 11—Schedules for the remainder of the scholastic year in golf, tennis and wrestling and revision of the handbook of rules topped the agenda today as Western conference faculty representatives, athletic directors and coaches opened the Big Nine winter meeting.

Since the conference handbook was last revised in 1941, the Big Nine's code has been completely overhauled to include recent legislation to eliminate special wartime permissions. Now, faculty men want to further incorporate in the rules additions which they believe necessary to govern Big Nine sports in the post-war era.

The meeting will continue through Saturday.

Movies or Baseball—What for Berardino? He Doesn't Know

By The Associated Press

MONROVIA, Calif., Dec 11 — Johnny Berardino, infielder, and Johnny Berardino, film actor, is having a tough time figuring out whether he can be both, or which

Looks like the movies have Johnny, at the present. He's signed a contract which can run for seven years with him producer Richard K. Polmer and Johnny says "there's no way I can break that. I'm afraid that comes first"

However, the St Louis Browns have traded Berardino to the Cleveland Indians and the Indians say they think Johnny will sign a baseball contract. Johnny says

"I expect Polmer to hear from Bill Veeck (Indians chief) this trade is something new, and whether I can fulfill the (movie) contract, and play baseball, too, is something for Polmer and Veeck to take up."

She's Sure She Wants No Coat for Christmas

By The Associated Press

LORAIN, O., Dec. 11—Miss Margaret Novak said today she isn't looking forward to Christmas—unless police can convince a mysterious "Julius" he shouldn't send her any more goats.

A goat was tied to her front porch a month ago. Another was left in the same place this week.

The second goat bore this note:

"Keep him and feed him, and I'll send you another for Christmas. (Signed) Julius."

Miss Novak told police she suspected the goats were sent by a young man she refused to date. Officers gave one goat away. The other "vanished," they said.

PLANE

ship had been guided to the field by radar.

The plane, apparently crippled by ice formed in a freezing rainstorm, struck a radar truck 1,000 feet short of the runway, bounced and hit another, then exploded in flames.

The co-pilot, identified only as Second Lt. C. Curtis, of California, was trapped and burned. The others escaped.

About the time it crashed, a twin-engine private plane piloted by Nich Carafanello of Bradford, Pa., was radar-guided into the national airport here for a safe landing in the storm.

MAY STOP FACTORY FLOW FROM GERMANY TO RUSSIA

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 — A proposal to block shipments of dismantled German factories to Russia by clamping restrictions on Army funds is under study today in the senate appropriations committee.

The idea was advanced by Senator Ball (R-Minn), who said it might be possible to halt the reparations flood into the Soviet Union and its satellites by forbidding the use of funds for dismantling any additional plants in the Anglo-American zone except those destined for western Europe.

Such a limitation, Ball said, could be attached to the $400,000,000 the army is asking to meet occupation costs in Germany, Japan and Korea up to next June 30.

"We are considering it," Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the appropriations committee told a reporter.

SUB-ZERO MARKS HIT IN SOME AREAS OF MIDWEST

By The Associated Press

More snow fell over scattered sections of the country today and temperatures in some parts of the midwest again dipped below zero.

The snow areas today included the eastern Great Lakes region and into New England and New York state, parts of North Dakota and Minnesota and the Pacific northwest.

The coldest weather again was centered in North Dakota and Minnesota. The lowest early morning temperature, six below, was reported at Grand Forks, N. D.

GEN. MEYERS INQUIRY IN CLOSING STAGES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—A federal grand jury investigation of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, retired air force purchasing officer, is nearing an end.

The jury, idle today, will question only one more witness, a member of the staff of the senate war investigating committee which previously probed Meyers' wartime financial operations.

The final witness will be heard either tomorrow or Monday.

Robert L. Pine, Dayton, O., real estate dealer and one of the original incorporators of the Aviation Electric Co. of Dayton, appeared before the jury yesterday.

The senate investigation, which touched off the jury inquiry, produced testimony that Meyers received more than $150,000 from the firm which held war contracts for plane parts.

Meyers told the committee he started the company as a favor to Mr. and Mrs. Bleriot Lamarre because Mrs. Lamarre was his "girl friend." This was denied by both Mrs. Lamarre and her husband, who was made a president of the firm.

Pine told newsmen he and Meyers established the company to market a device invented by David Johnson of Dayton, who headed the establishment before Lamarre took over.

HOLD ESCAPED PATIENT

A 33-year-old male patient from the Massillon, O., state hospital was being held here today by Marion police until authorities arrive to take him into custody, according to police reports. An alarm was broadcast yesterday after attendants found he had walked away from the institution. Police here took him into custody at 2:16 a. m. today at Main and Center streets after an automobile driver notified them that he had given the man a ride this far. Hospital attendants are expected to arrive some time today.

REPORT RENT BOOSTS ON 1,500,000 UNITS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—The government estimated today that rents increased $4 to $8 a month on more than 1,500,000 residential units from June—when rent controls were relaxed—to November.

In a comprehensive survey, the labor department said rents in 29 of the nation's largest cities increased five times as much during that period as during five years of "stricter" wartime controls.

Current rent controls expire next Feb. 29, but Republican and Democratic congressional leaders alike have indicated they favor some form of extension.

The present rent control law, enacted last June, authorized rent increases up to 15 per cent where landlords and tenants agreed to sign a new lease running at least until Dec. 31, 1948. The act also authorized "hardship" increases and the flat decontrol of hotels, motor courts, transient guests houses and housing units completed after last Feb. 1.

In its survey, the labor department said most of the increases from June to November amounted to "between $4 and $8 a month" and resulted from voluntary agreements reached between landlords and tenants. It said rents increased an average of "only one per cent" between July, 1942 and July, 1947.

A spokesman for the housing expediter estimated that 1,458,113 "voluntary agreements" were signed between last June and November providing for increases up to 15 per cent. He said rents on approximately 200,000 other rental units were boosted by "hardship adjustments," and general and partial decontrol.

Proposes Germany Ship Scrap Iron to U. S.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—Rep. Michael J. Kirwan (D-Ohio) suggested yesterday in a house speech that the United States should require Germany to ship scrap metal to this country in exchange for food.

"A general shortage of scrap, necessary for production of steel, exists in this country," Kirwan said. "There are millions of tons of scrap in Germany in the form of wrecked bridges, buildings and other war-damaged structures."

Scrap, the Ohio congressman continued, is more essential than wheat because "you can plant wheat but you can't plant scrap."

Kirwan suggested the U. S. pay Germany current prices of $40 a ton for scrap.

Marion Youth Movement Luncheon on Friday

The second luncheon meeting of the school year for the high school group of the Marion Christian Youth movement, interdenominational youth organization, will be held Friday noon at First Presbyterian church. A Christmas program will be presented, and a large attendance is anticipated, it was announced. The luncheon meetings are held in various downtown churches once a month as part of the schedule of activities of the youth division of the Marion County Council of Churches. First luncheon of the school year was held in Epworth Methodist church in October. A Thanksgiving dinner at the Y.M.C.A. for the entire M.C.Y.M. took the place of the November luncheon meeting.

For the meeting Friday, Marjorie Middleton is general chairman. James Rea, president, will be in charge, and program will include a pantomime and poetry presented by pupils of Harding High school classes taught by Marion Chase, and group singing of Carols. A brief report on the fall "Oslo in Ohio" youth conference at Findlay, echoing the world conference of youth which was held in Norway during the summer, has been scheduled also. Women of the host church will serve the luncheon.

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — THE YEAR 1947 probably will go down in history as the one in which Uncle Sam became the pawnbroker of western civilization.

A backward glance discloses it also had its odd accomplishments in many other fields of endeavor. Our nominations:

The man who did most for posterity: the Siamese Prince Singha, who died worn out in the service of mankind leaving 180 wives, 24 recognized families and more than 800 children. No man tried harder to be the father of his country.

BOYLE

The most interesting homicide: the case of the 33-year-old Baltimore husband who strangled his 53-year-old tattooed bride because she beat him up and insisted on showing the tattooes to admiring sailors.

Runner-up: the man who killed his wife because she made him say, "pretty please."

The most depressing single statistic: The American Telephone and Telegraph company's statement that the United States held 42,000,000,000 telephone conversations the previous year—301 for each inhabitant. No figure was given on how many were wrong numbers.

THE MAN WHO DID MOST to worry school children: The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis M. Kenny of Malone, N. Y., who announced he had found a way to trisect an arc, a feat held impossible by mathematicians for centuries.

The most reasonable husband of the year: The 69-year-old Californian who sought an annulment or divorce from the wife he never had seen since he kissed her goodbye in 1900 on his induction into the Army two hours after his marriage.

The hottest issue at the polls—The question of whether to allow Sunday movies in Parryville, Pa. Citizens decided yes, 58 to 47, although the village has no theater.

Most depressing scientific fact: Discovery by an Eastman Kodak researcher that the human eye can distinguish 17,000 separate colors, 600 more than the manufacturers of Christmas neckties thought possible.

Most cheerful news to the world of mice: Destruction by forest fire of a laboratory at Bar Harbor, Me., which had developed cats with four ears and extra claws.

Most thought-provoking contribution to agriculture: The Australian gardener who went to a circus, obtained some fertilizer from the elephant quarters, and boosted the weight of his white turnips from one pound to 12½ pounds. ("Think what might have been achieved with fertilizer from dinosaurs," he said.)

MOST DISMAYING development in the field of outdoor sport: Breeding of a new type ferocious rabbit that bites anything that comes near and also can punch with either paw.

Most uncompromising figure in international labor strife: Luigi Bellini, who conducted a one-man strike that left the village of Selva, Italy, in darkness. He had been refused a 10-cent-a-year wage increase for throwing the switch that supplies electrical power.

British war bride who has best chance of success in America: Mrs. Jean Tilton, who took one look at Brooklyn from the porthole of her ship—and fainted with joy.

Hand to face, Mrs. Celeste Millarg, 22, hears her husband Rudolph (left) confess he started three fires in Philadelphia's American Legion headquarters, where he was adjutant. DOWN ON THE FARM ERA VANISHING IN NEBRASKA

By The United Press

LINCOLN, Neb. — Nebraska's new state song well might be "How Ya Gonna Keep Them Down on the Farm?"

According to statistics, in the last 10 years Nebraska boys and girls not only have left the farms rapidly but also have left the state.

Dr. H. C. Filley, professor of rural economics at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture, said the trend to move away from the farm is "normal," due largely to the fact that Nebraska farms have been getting larger and fewer in number, while farm families have increased in size.

"There are twice as man children born on farms as there are in the cities," Filley said.

The increase in the size of the farm families coupled with the coming of new and better machinery has left the farm boy and girl with time on their hands.

SEES TELEVISION AS GREAT EDUCATION AID

By The United Press

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—The Rev. Archibald McDowell, moderator of Notre Dame University's radio club, foresees the time when university extension courses will be conducted by television.

Father McDowell has been in charge of televising Notre Dame's home football games this fall. He felt they had proven successful.

"Two major types of educational television programs present themselves," Father McDowell said.

"One is closed circuit or broadcast shows under the direct sponsorship of the educational institution; the other is use of commercial educational facilities during the periods the station is not normally on the air."

The expert said television could prove particularly effective in conveying visual information of a not easily-repeated nature to numerous classes at once. It could be used for expensive laboratory demonstrations and explanations, or where the demonstration equipment was delicate, he said.

"Television as a regular tool of the classroom could assure greater uniformity in teaching and testing students and prove particularly valuable in guiding students in laboratory work," he added.

He also described the use of television as a teaching instrument in reaching isolated audiences such as students confined to hospitals, adult education centers and university extension courses.

"It is not inconceivable," he said, "that the extension courses of tomorrow may be conducted by television. . . . Television as an educational and, hence, social force, cannot be overestimated."

"CELLINI CUP" SOLD

By The United Press

NEW YORK—An auction of the J. P. Morgan collection of old silver included a Renaissance gilded silver chalice, made in Augsburg in 1550, which sold for $7,500. The 12-inch-high chalice, traditionally nown as the "Cellini Cup," is wrought with scenes, bird and leaf scrollings and masks.

Belgium has about 1,000 miles of navigable inland waterways.

BOWLING RESULTS

Max Roseberry's 188 single game stood high in the Sportsman's league bowling at the Palace Tuesday. C. Robinson took series honors with a 515.

D. Redding bowled a 212 game in the Marion Power Shovel league also on the Palace alleys. T. Chapman's 556 series was high.

January Export Coal Quota Is Announced

By International News Service

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—The commerce department announced yesterday a January coal export quota of three and one-half million tons.

The department said that about three million tons will be licensed for shipment to European countries and the remainder to South America for ship coaling stations.

The department said that the allocations do not include the grades of soft coal most commonly used in American homes or hard coal on which there is an export ban.

The first American agricultural experiment station was founded in Connecticut 70 years ago.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

"I WOULDN'T let the royal playboy guess that I know about the letters he wrote Mary at the sanitarium," my husband went on thoughtfully. "Let him think that so far, you have been Mary's only confidante. Especially do I want the knowledge of her wanting to confide the mess to Noel, to hit him squarely in the face as a surprise when I heave it at him. But it won't do him any harm to tell him that you know about them—it will give him something to worry about."

"I'll be glad to furnish him with any material for that purpose," I said vindictively.

"Good girl!" Dicky said approvingly. Then he gave me an appraising look.

"Dimes to poker chips," he said, "before this thing is over, you're going to have a sneaking little feeling that perhaps Georges isn't the complete heel and anointed jackass that he appears to be now."

"You're a—" I burst out indignantly, but my husband interrupted me ruthlessly.

"Remember, I know you, as if I'd assembled you on the line," he said. "You'd find excuses for the 'old debbil man' himself if he told a pitiful enough story. But then," he added, as impersonally as if he were discussing a new adding machine, "that's part of your charm. I really wouldn't have you any other way, honest!"

"Thank you kindly, sir," I told him, with a genuine little thrill of pleasure.

"'For them kind words,' is the rest of the sentence," he told me airily. "But don't mention it. I'm always ready to oblige a lady. And, now, is there anything else you want of my prodigious intellect? I can uncork some more words of wisdom if you need them."

"I don't need anything just at this minute," I told him, smiling. "I need time to digest this suggestion that I tell Georges I know of his letters. I must talk that over with Mary. In fact she'll be wild to know what your reaction was to the whole affair."

"Do you think you're equal to repeating all the comments I made?" he asked with a malicious grin.

"If I'm not, I'll send for you," I told him. "But I need your help in something more important just now."

"I knew it," he said. "Richard, the Indispensable, as well as the Lion-Hearted."

"I want you to get Faith away on some plausible errand," I said. "I cannot have her around while I tell Mary your plan. But she won't be content with another visit to the studio."

"We're going to see Mother today at the hospital, aren't we?" he queried.

"Yes, we are," I told him.

"Then," he said, "what's the matter with my taking Faith on a little shopping expedition, flowers and goodies for her grandmother?"

"I can't think of anything more fascinating for Faith, and useful for me," I told him. "But please curb your usual tendencies to order everything in sight."

"That's fine!" he said with theatrical bitterness. "Begrudge my poor old mother an extra piece of candy or a couple of posies! When did you ever see me stinting your father on cigars?"

"Never," I told him, laughing. "But you don't want to load your mother up with so much that the nurses get most of the goodies because they won't keep."

"Can't they put 'em in the re-frigerator?' he asked obstinately.

"I imagine their space is limited," I said.

"I'll put in an extra ice box for them," he said. "We're going away soon anyway on that wedding junket, and the Lord knows when we'll get back to see Mother again."

"I know," I said, "but, did you ever hear of putting in an order to a florist and to a candy store, and having stuff delivered regularly?"

He put up his hands as if a thug were pointing a revolver at him. "Don't shoot!" he babbled as if he were in dire terror. "I'll do anything you say."

"On those conditions, I'll spare your life," I told him, laughing. "And now, let's get started back downstairs. I'm going to lean heavily on you for entertaining Faith this morning. This trip to see your mother is the first Mary has taken outside the hotel, and I want her to rest as much as possible before she goes."

"I'll try to be the sturdy oak," he said, as we left the studio. "And I agree with you that while Faith is prime entertainment, I couldn't recommend her as a rest cure."

5 RULES LISTED TO PREVENT YULE FIRES

City Department Chief Urges Care and Caution.

A plea to keep the Christmas season a joyful one by observing five seasonal fire prevention rules was made today by Chief Owen A. Sifritt.

He reminded Marionites of the number of fires which occur during each Yuletide season due to improper use of candles or inflammable material too close to electric bulbs.

Chief Sifritt listed these five suggestions to eliminate or reduce seasonal hazards: be certain the tree is solidly placed; keep the tree standing in water; keep an approved fire extinguisher handy; inspect Christmas lights for frayed wires or loose sockets and remember to put Christmas tree lights out before going to bed.

An extra reminder was made to operators of public places to guard against fire and cautioned them to see that the number of exits were adequate and to keep aisles and exits unobstructed.

CLASS ELECTION HELD

Election and installation of officers took place recently when members of the Loyalty Bible class of Forest Lawn Presbyterian church met with Miss Elma Church of 627 East Center street. Mrs. H. E. Winters was reelected president. Other officers named were Mrs. S. D. Ross, vice president; Mrs. Homer Hartpence, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. James O'Dowd and Mrs. Agnes Starner, teachers, Mrs. K. P. Riley, reporter. Mrs. L. F. Bauguess served as the installing officer. The meeting opened with devotions conducted by Mrs. Riley, followed by the Bible study led by Mrs. O'Dowd, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Ralph Clutter and Mrs. Frank Phillips. The program, in charge of Mrs. W. E. Walker, included readings by Mrs. Bauguess and Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Bauguess won contest honors. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. O'Dowd, Mrs. W. P. Converse and Mrs. Charles Lamb.

British railroads now are conducting tests with radio-controlled switching which are expected to result in big advances in railroad techniques.

Crisis in 1846

...ere was another close call in ... after the Democrats had elected James K. Polk president on a virtual war platform slogan-ized as "Fifty-Four Forty or Fight."

Under the terms of the Louisiana Purchase, the U. S. claimed it had rights to all northwest territory right up to 54° 40' latitude at the Alaska border. The British had long maintained a counter-claim, and when discussions go' nowhere war talk began to mount. Finally, however, an agreement was reached putting the Oregon boundary at the forty-ninth parallel, its present border.

America had three other brushes with the British. In 1863, John Bull grew apoplectic over the "wanton insult" given by U. S. Marines who stopped a British steamer carrying two Confederate envoys on their way to Europe. President Lincoln hastily put an end to the war-like noises by releasing the envoys.

Also during the Civil War the British built and loudly applauded the famed Confederate cruiser Alabama and other vessels which preyed on Union shipping. Northern hot-heads were all for taking on the British too. And the feeling was reciprocated. Throughout the early part of the Civil War Britain and France both appeared to step in the struggle against the "up-start Yankees." Historians say the Northern victories at Gettysburg and Vicksburg, however, convinced them they were backing a losing cause.

Get Tough Policy Worked

In 1895, when Britain allegedly violated the Monroe Doctrine in the Venezuela - British Guiana boundary dispute which had been going on for more than half a century, President Cleveland accused her of "willful aggression." He threatened to "resist by every means" any British appropriation of mineral-rich lands which the U. S. regarded as Venezuelan. In that case a 'get tough" policy paid off because the British public, recoiling from the "unthinkable horror" of war, put pressure on their government to arbitrate.

Waving the big stick helped produce peace in several other delicate situations.

When Napoleon III tried to set up a French empire in Mexico during the Civil War and was slow in removing his troops Union veterans oiled their guns for action. Napoleon, sick of the whole Mexican business anyway, ordered the army home.

Twice a show of strength averted what might have developed into out-and-out shooting with Germany. In 1889, when a German consul hoisted his flag on Samoa—over which the U. S. had joint claims as a protectorate—and when German sailors trampled the American flag in the streets, President Cleveland rushed warships to the scene.

Hurricane Helped

The willingness of the U. S. to intervene in a matter involving a remote little island—plus a hurricane which put both naval forces out of effective action—are believed to be factors which led the German Chancellor Bismarck to agree to a joint protectorate over Samoa by the U. S., Germany and Britain.

Thirteen years later Theodore Roosevelt saw red when German warships blockaded Venezuelan ports to enforce a claims settlement.

T. R. charged the Germans with trying to get some control over the approaches to the Panama Canal, then building, and he ordered Admiral Dewey to be ready for acion on an hour's notice. Roosevelt then demanded arbitration at the threat of war. The German emperor backed down hurriedly.

There had been tense moments in 1891, too, when a Chilean mob killed two American sailors in Valparaiso and injured several others. This argument was settled when the Chilean government apologized and paid $75,000.

Relations with Mexico were strained during World War I. In 1914 the U. S. intervened against the new revolutionary government there and the Navy even held Vera Cruz for several months. But that did not develop into declared war, nor did the crisis in 1916 when President Wilson sent troops under General Pershing to search out the bandit Pancho Villa who raided the town of Columbus, N. M.

Bookies trying to establish odds on war or peace would not find the whole answer in what happened in the past, however. It's always easier to figure what made the last war "inevitable" than to tell what the current situation really portends.

ON BORROWED TIME

By The United Press

MINNEAPOLIS—Grandma Pennoyer, who has just celebrated her 100th birthday, apparently has been living on borrowed time for 27 years. At least that's the opinion of a doctor who, when Grandma was 83, told her she was suffering from a serious kidney infection and gave her one week to live.

OWN UN CLUB FORMED BY COLLEGE STUDENTS

By The United Press

LOGAN, Utah — Foreign students at Utah State Agricultural College have organized a Cosmopolitan club with a theme of "Above all nations is humanity."

More than 80 students from lands as far away as India are members of the club. The chief sponsor is Dr. Franklin S. Harris, USAC president, who twice has served Iran as adviser on agricultural modernization.

The club president is Dr. S. M. Ali, a graduate of Iran's colorful University of the Sun and the Lion. He is studying dairy sanitation at the Utah agricultural school. Also a member is his wife, Touran Ahi, a home economics student.

Other nations represented include Peru, Belgium, Colombia, Honduras, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Burma, India, Pakistan, Iraq, Palestine, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt and Canada.

The Lincoln highway, connecting New York and San Francisco, is 3,384 miles long.

...ns definitely established ...s mild influenza of recent ... caused by one or two vir... ...ed influenza A and in... B

A virus is the smallest of all dis...ease-producing organisms. Wh...e the influenza produced by the two influenza viruses seems almost identical, the organisms themselves are different, even to the extent of being acuve in different years. Thus, outbreaks due to influenza A recur every two or three years, while those caused by influenza B have four-to-five-year intervals.

In an attack of influenza the patient has more or less severe aching in the muscles and sometimes a dry cough, loss of appetite and headache.

No treatment has as yet been discovered which will clear up an influenza infection quickly. Neither penicillin nor the sulfonamide drugs seem to affect this virus. However, these drugs are often used during an influenza attack to ward off secondary infections with germs.

It is possible, however, to vaccinate patients for either influenza A or B infections, or for both. Influenza vaccine only gives protection against influenza, it does not protect against any other respiratory infections, such as colds or pneumonia.

It has not as yet been determined exactly how long the protection lasts. Some believe that it lasts for only six weeks. Others think it may persist for from three months to a year. It is likely that there is some variation in the length of protection in different people, even if complete protection is not obtained, at least the disease is milder when an attack occurs.

Following injections of influenza vaccine there may be chills, fever, and muscle aches which persist as long as a day. Aspirin often relieves the symptoms promptly.

During an epidemic of influenza it is advisable that persons in danger of exposure to the disease have injections of the influenza A and B vaccine.

Persons who appear particularly susceptible to the disease would do well to consult their physicians about the advisability of getting injections of the vaccine at regular times each year.

MILLERS PLAN SCHOOL TO DEVELOP EXPERTS

By The United Press

MINNEAPOLIS — The nation's millers are starting a training program to develop highly skilled specialists for top engineering jobs in the industry.

A $10,000 grant from the Millers National Federation to the University of Minnesota will set up a school of milling engineering, the only one of its kind in the nation.

Plans for the school have filled the minds of educators and some milling technical workers for more than 20 years. Until about three years ago, the industry felt no need for a training program.

According to Dr. Betty Sullivan, chairman of the federation's technical advisory committee, the industry was content with a system of on-the-job training to develop its mechanical experts.

But the millers were shocked into consciousness, she said, when a combination of the depression and the war cut off their supply of potential milling engineers.

"We suddenly found," she said, "that the industry was falling behind in developing new techniques and in making itself more efficient. The industry is technologically behind other fields, mainly because we have no new minds."

The new school is designed to supply those new minds at the rate of about 30 a year, starting five years from now when the first graduates will enter the field.

Prof. John McKenzie, appointed to head the school, said the demand for graduates would be high.

"The milling industry," he explained, "is not a large-scale employer because it doesn't take many men to run a mill. But there will be a continuing, limited demand for graduates of the course in such centers as Buffalo, N. Y., Kansas City, St. Louis, Seattle, Dallas, Fort Worth and Minneapolis."

Submarine Duty Now Available to Recruits

All young men in the regular Navy between the ages of 17 and 31 inclusive may now be assigned to submarine duty if they meet with the necessary qualifications.

Chief C. T. Prusnek, Navy recruiter stationed in the sheriff's office, announced the following requirements: volunteer for submarine duty; make satisfactory scores on the classification test battery; be physically qualified for submarine duty and to be mentally and emotionally stable and mature. Further information may be obtained by contacting the recruiting officer.

Santa and the GOOD BOY

BY LUCILLE HUTCHINS

CHAPTER SEVEN

Mr. Sleek Gives Tom a Test

TOM CLOVER ran all the way to his one-room house on the edge of town. He burst in and cried, "Oh, Mother, we HAVE to have a Christmas tree this year! The President is giving a fur coat and a dress and shoes to the mother of the child with the prettiest tree!"

His mother smiled sadly. "How could we ever get the money, Tom?"

The boy stared gloomily out of the window. "Son," whispered his mother. "Christmas is for rich people, I guess. We must just pretend it's like any other time of year."

"No," said the boy roughly. "We will have a tree."

Then he picked up a shovel. "Dont wait up for me," he said and he went out of the house. He walked and he walked until he was far from the town. He kept on until he came to the forest and there he hunted for a tree.

By the light of the moon he found the fir—a proud little tree with a fine straight trunk and every bough perfect. He dug up the roots and tenderly lifted the tree and carried it the long way home.

Before the sun rose that day Tom had dug a deep hole and planted the proud little fir in his own front yard.

"But, Tom," asked his mother, aching with pity. "How can we ever decorate it to win a prize?"

"That's easy," he replied. "I'm going to get a star—a real, honest-to-goodness star—to shine at the top of the fir."

Then before his mother would recover from her astonishment he tramped away.

HE WENT to the great Hall of Science in the center of Mizoo where long bearded men with inch-thick spectacles spent all their lives studying the skies and all that was in them.

"Tell me, please," said Tom politely to one of these men. "How much does it cost to buy a star?"

The man looked startled and coughed a little. Then he said, "Stars are free, boy. They are for everyone."

"And how can I get one?" persisted Tom.

"Well, son," faltered the scientist. "Stars are hundreds and hundreds of thousands of miles away."

"I thought maybe I could build a ladder," said Tom hopefully.

The man doubled up and Tom saw that he was choking with laughter. Then Tom turned and ran away from there and he was as angry as a small boy could ever be.

He went to the park and sat on a bench and sorrowfully kicked at the snow. By and by a man came and sat down beside him.

"Tell me what is the matter, son," he said. "You look sad."

He was a grey headed man with blood red eyes and a voice like syrup dripping off a spoon and if Tom Clover had known who he was he would have gotten up and run away as fast as he could go.

For it was Mr. Sleek in disguise. Mr. Sleek came to show Santa that Tom Clover was a bad boy. But Tom thought he was a kindly man and he said, "Oh, sir, I've got to get a star!"

"A star?" repeated Mr. Sleek and he nodded his head. "Now, isn't that strange! It just so happens I know exactly where a star is to be found!"

TOM jumped up and his eyes glowed with pleasure. "Oh, tell me, sir," he cried. "Do you suppose that I could get it?"

"Indeed," nodded Mr. Sleek solemnly. "I believe you could."

"Where? Where?"

"It isn't so far away but first, my boy, you'd have to bring me a gift."

"Tell me what?"

"Bring me," said Mr. Sleek and his eyes narrowed and filled with glee. "Bring me the wool from a red sheep's back."

"A red sheep!" gasped Tom, for well he knew that sheep are either black or white.

"There is such a thing," said Mr. Sleek, "but it would take a very brave and smart boy to find one and I don't suppose you are either brave or smart." He rose to leave.

Tom Clover snatched at his sleeve. "I'll get it!" he swore. "I'll bring it to you here tomorrow!"

"And if you don't," asked Mr. Sleek craftily. "Will that mean you are neither brave nor smart nor good?"

"Why," replied Tom in surprise. "I suppose it would."

And little he knew that, if it were so, Santa Land would vanish and there never would be Christmas again.

Pint-Size Bathrooms New Idea for Homes

By The United Press

CHICAGO—The plumbing industry has come up with an answer to how you can have an extra bathroom even though you don't have much room.

A complete bathroom has been designed to fit into a space as small as six feet by five feet.

Many homes still have old-fashioned pantries which could fit into the picture. Or a partition could be built at the end of one of the larger bedrooms.

The secret of the pint-sized bathroom is a corner lavatory and a small, low bathtub. Overall dimentions of the tub are 42 by 31 inches. It is ideal as a shower receptor, and convenient for giving the children a scrubbing. The big folks can use it either for a shower or a foot bath.

OKLAHOMA GI STUDENTS HIGH IN REGISTRATION

By The United Press

NORMAN, Okla. — Statistics show that at the University of Oklahoma: (1) every other student is a veteran, (2) every other veteran is married, (3) every other married veteran is a father.

Officials in the registrar's office also said that of the 12,000 students, 7,050, including 97 women, were receiving GI Bill allotments.

One GI attending O. U. listed six children.

13-Man Antarctic Party Scoffs at Superstition

By The United Press

MELBOURNE, Australia—Thirteen members of the projected Australian Antarctic expedition will spend 15 months on Heard Island, 2,000 miles southwest of Freemantle, Australia. No member is reported to be superstitious about the number 13, according to Trevor Heath, planning committee secretary.

Heard Island has been described as one of the loneliest places in the world. It has never been surveyed. Seventy-mile-per-hour winds blast the island almost continually and it is sometimes blanketed by fog. The party will live on fish, canned eggs and meat. The men will make weather and scientific observations.

Customers Baffled By Slick Bandit Pair

By The United Press

ST. LOUIS—Two prospective customers who walked into a liquor store here were surprised when the man behind the counter said he didn't have the faintest idea what prices he should charge.

Then another man casually walked out of the back room and said, "It's getting late. Guess we'd better go get something to eat." Both men walked out, leaving the customers unserved.

A few seconds later, Joseph Singer, 54, and his wife, Leona, 45, burst out of a washroom and revealed that the supposed clerks were bandits who had just stolen $195 from the store.

TOO GRUESOME

By The United Press

SALEM, Ore.—Lawlessness here has been on the decrease since the police force got its new paddy wagon. "They don't like to ride in that vehicle," Chief Frank Minto explained. The new paddy wagon is a converted hearse.

NEW DANDELION SOURCE OF RUBBER ANNOUNCED

By The United Press

MOSCOW—Two species of dandelion which may have commercial possibilities as great as those species now being cultivated for the Soviet rubber industry have been discovered in the Caucasus.

Their discovery was revealed by G. Bosse of the National Rubber Institute in an article in Socialist Agriculture. Bosse said:

"I think it is highly possible that both, or at least one, of the species are no less valuable than kok-sagyz."

Kok-sagyz is the dandelion species which the Soviet Union began planting more than 10 years ago and which now is contributing heavily to the sources of natural rubber.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste

If you have an excess of acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Kidneys may need help the same as bowels, so ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

CENTENARIAN SOLVES TOWN'S BELL PROBLEM

By The United Press

MILLVILLE, N. J.—Mrs. Jennie Bingham is over 100 years old and she didn't know why the fire bell rang four times at six o'clock every morning.

When the question was brought up, Fire Chief Tom Corson was puzzled, too.

Mrs. Bingham snorted, "I don't see any sense in it. Why don't they make it ring six times as it should."

Chief Corson admitted it was a rather silly arrangement. To all other puzzled Millville residents he proclaimed, "The fire bell will be rung six times at six o'clock from now on."

The president, Carson Biller, presided, and G. E. Sneeringer was toastmaster. Group singing was led by Homer Clabaugh and Mrs. T. H. Weisenborn pleased the audience with several selections on the piano accordion.

Two boys from the F.F.A., Junior Needles and Ralph Murray, outlined the plans for a rat hunt that the F.F.A. groups in the county are sponsoring. They also acquainted the Lions with the cost of rats in this area.

Speaker of the evening was Rev. Wade Koons of Carey, who chose as his subject, "Your World View Is Showing."
